Thursday Night

On Thursday evening, we will host students at the "Build Your Flyer Connections: Career Advice from Alums" event which will take place in the McGinnis Center starting at 6 p.m.

We will have opportunities for students and alums to interact in small and large groups to discuss career topics. We will offer free professional photos for students (as well as you) to use for their LinkedIn profiles. Also, students will be entered into a drawing to win a business suit.

Friday and Saturday Sessions

Friday will begin with a prayer service and tour of the renovated Chapel. All groups will be together for lunch and the afternoon sessions. The Power of Community celebration on Friday evening is for all groups. We will gather to celebrate the accomplishments all of groups throughout the year as well as recognize our outgoing volunteers. Food and drinks will be provided.

Saturday will begin with breakfast followed by individual group breakout sessions during the day.

Alumni Awards Dinner

The annual alumni awards dinner, on Saturday evening, is a signature event of the alumni association. Six alumni will receive awards in five categories. Click here for more information on the award recipients.

Sunday breakfast

ALC officially ends following Sunday's breakfast. We will gather at the Boesch Lounge in UD Arena. Please enter the Arena parking lot through Gate B.

Additional Information

Wi-Fi Access: You will be receiving a login and password to access the University's Wi-Fi while on campus. Be on the lookout for an email with that information in next few days.

Parking: Parking passes are required while on campus Friday morning. Be sure to stop by the Visitor's Center booth at L St. and College Park, near the Frericks Center, to pick up your pass before the Chapel prayer service. Let them know you are there for the Alumni Leadership Conference.

This same parking pass will also be needed for Friday afternoon at River Campus. Parking at River Campus will be in the parking lot to the right of the building.

No passes are needed for the Saturday and Sunday sessions.
