

We invite you to the Inaugural Midwest Summer Institute:

COMMUNITY/CAMPUS PARTNERSHIP FOR GLOBAL LEARNING AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Building on a commitment to the common good and collaborating with globalsl.org, a multi-institutional hub supporting ethical community-based global learning, this first Midwest Institute will engage participants with each other and with University of Dayton local/global partners. The goal is to deepen participants' community-campus partnership practices for reciprocity, and to advance community and student outcomes for community-based global learning around the world.

1 PM MAY 14 TO
1 PM MAY 16, 2019

go.udayton.edu/midwest-summer-institute

REGISTRATION INFORMATION COMING END OF JANUARY.

Early bird registration due March 1.
Registration limited to 50 participants to allow for partner visits, intentional reflective dialogue, inquiry, connections, and creating value.

Located in Dayton, OH on the University of Dayton's campus in partnership with Emerson's Helix Innovation Center and GlobalSL.org, and co-sponsored by Southwestern Ohio Council for Higher Education (SOCHE) and Ohio Campus Compact.

University of Dayton

globalsl.org

SOCHE
Southwestern Ohio Council for Higher Education

Campus Compact
Ohio

EMERSON