

Inaugural South-South Philosophical Dialogues:

HUMAN RIGHTS FROM BELOW

University of Dayton
Dayton, OH
October 12-14, 2017

PLEASE JOIN US:

The South-South Philosophical Dialogues is a space in which a plurality of traditions thinking from multiple undersides of modernity come together to understand contemporary global challenges, and to think through various ways people throughout the world have responded and continue to respond to these problems.

Check back on our website for additional information, tentative schedule and registration details.

go.udayton.edu/hrc

For more information:
Contact the Human Rights Center hrc@udayton.edu or 937-229-3294
go.udayton.edu/hrc

Event sponsored by the University of Dayton Philosophy Department and the Human Rights Center

Guest Speakers

Enrique Dussel
Ramón Grosfoguel
Paget Henry
Oyèrónkẹ Oyěwùmí
Nelson Maldonado-Torres
Walter D. Mignolo
C.K. Raju
Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni
Rothney Tshaka
Alejandro Vallega
Dr. Sirin Adlibi Sibai
Asma Lamrabet
Hatem Bazian
Salman Sayyid
Kuan-Hsing Chen

