

Boundary Value Problems at Resonance for Ordinary Differential Equations

Alaa Almansour

University of Dayton

Abstract: We consider boundary value problems at resonance for ordinary differential equations. We invert the problem on an appropriate proper subspace of a Banach space and construct fixed point operators. We apply the contraction mapping principle and the Schauder fixed point theorem to several families of boundary value problems at resonance.