

Characterizations of Leonard Pairs

Edward Hanson

Williams College

Abstract: Leonard pairs are pairs of linear transformations that act on each other's eigenspaces in an irreducible tridiagonal fashion. They are related to distance-regular graphs, Lie algebras, and the Askey scheme of orthogonal polynomials. In this talk, we will motivate these connections and discuss some recent characterization results.