

A-ten-hut!

"You're young only once, but you can be immature forever."

Fairborn July 4 Parade

Come join in on the fun and help prove to the world (or at least part of Greene County) that "you can be immature forever"! The parade starts at 2 p.m., so please arrive one hour early so we can "practice" (well, run through the music once or twice so you don't have to try to walk and sight read at the same time).

We are always enthusiastically welcomed by the large crowds lining the parade route, so don't be afraid to strut your stuff again with your friends.

Set-up location is the parking lot in front of Fulmer's Market at 1200 N Broad St. (State Route 444), Fairborn, OH 45324.

If you need an instrument, contact Mark Buchwalder: bikewalder@yahoo.com. We have cymbals, snare, bass and quad drums, sousaphones, baritones, a trombone, a clarinet, a mellophone and a cornet available.

Band Alumni Weekend

Band Alumni Weekend 2010 is scheduled for September 17-18-19. Mark your calendars now! We're celebrating the 105th year of the Pride of Dayton! The schedule should be the typical Friday night meet-and-greet, Saturday morning rehearsal, pregame tailgate party, game performance and Saturday evening dinner and dance. Sunday brings the ever popular (with a few, anyway) golf outing. See you there!

Additional information will be posted on our web site:

UD Band Alumni on Facebook

Hey Facebook users, are you aware we have an active group? Our VP, Lynne Castle, started a group page about a year ago. Just "Google" the University of Dayton Band Alumni Facebook and you'll find it.

It is another super way to connect with your former classmates, join some silly discussions and keep informed about udba activities.
