

Traditional Conference Papers, Books-In-Progress, and Dissertations in Progress (Concurrent Sessions)

Tuesday, July 10 1:00p - 3:30p
Session A Traditional Papers		Justin Bell (University of Houston-Victoria) - “Deweyan Tools for Disability Studies: Denormalizing Ability and Growth in Problematic Situations ” Lauren Nuckols (Penn State) - “The Gospel of Greed: Peircean Sources of Environmental Ethics” Lee McBride (Wooster) - “Superstition and Credulousness; Or, Why Experimental Logic is Needed”
Session B Traditional Papers		Joseph Urbas (Université Bordeaux Montaigne) - "Was Emerson a Late Convert to Materialism?" Bill Bywater (Allegheny College) - “Creating Democracy: An Essential Task Before Us” Wesley Dempster (University of Dayton) - “Pragmatism and the Role of Truth in Democratic Inquiry”
Session C Experiments- In-Progress		Zachary Piso (University of Dayton) - Urban Ecological Citizenship in Rust Belt Food Systems John Giordano (Merrimack) - Situating Knowledge: What Would a New Institution of Learning Grounded in Pragmatist Post-Epistemological Understandings of Democracy, Creativity and Education Look Like?
Wednesday, July 11 1:00p - 3:30 p
Session D Dissertations in Progress		Eric Ritter (Vanderbilt) - “The Pragmatic Theory of Truth and Meaning in Wittgenstein and Dewey” Dan Baron (York University) – “Pragmatist meliorism and double-consciousness: A reconstructive model of inquiry”

Session E Traditional Papers		Maggie Newton (University of Oregon) - Multiplicitous Selves, Place, and Environment Rebekah Sinclair (University of Oregon) - Righting Names: Ecological Ontologies and Indigenous Naming Practices Jessica Richardson (Michigan State University) - June Bugs and Dandy-lions: Growing Ecologies of Place” Rachel McNealis (Marquette University) - “Leaving the Dignity Behind Us: Investigating Sex with the Enemy Through a Temporality of Innocence”
Session F Traditional Papers		Paul Showler (University of Oregon) - "Dewey's Ethics and the British Moral Sense Tradition" Shunji Ukai (University of Oregon) - "The Necessary Neglect of Dewey's Theory of Experience" Jordan Davis- “And Yet a Greater Cause: a Roycean Approach to the Problem of Administrative Evil” Nicolas Bernier (Université de Sherbrooke)- “Mead and Dewey on Transaction: A Shift in Human Interactions and Relationships
Friday, July 13 1:00p - 3:30p
Session G Books-In-Progress		Stéphane Madelrieux (Université de Lyon) - Philosophy of Radical Experiences. A Criticism of Metaphysical Empiricism Katie Terezakis (Rochester Institute of Technology) - The Reinvention of Idealism in American Philosophy: John William Miller and the Idealist Case for History, Technology, and Objectified Agency
Session H Traditional Papers		Andrea Fiore (Salesian Pontifical University) - “ Democracy and Education: the Importance of Play in Dewey's Thought” William Delzeith (University of Toledo) - “Emerson: Politics and Understanding; Philosophy and Reason” Laura Arcila Villa (Colorado State University) – “Pragmatic and Theological Understandings of “Liberation”
Session I		Paul B. Thompson, The Spirit of the Soil, Second Edition

Author Meets Critics		Nancy McHugh (Wittenberg University), Ian Werkheiser (University of Texas-Rio Grande Valley), Clark Wolf (Iowa State University), Paul B. Thompson (Michigan State University)
Session J Books-In-Progress		Dwayne Tunstall (GVSU) - Blackness as Pan-ethnicity Sheron Fraser-Burgess (Ball State University) - Wading into the Troubled Waters of Race: Turning to the Pragmatism of John Dewey
Saturday, July 14 1:30p - 3:30 p
Session K Books-In-Progress		Deborah Setzler Kelly (Wabash College) - Educational Method and the Misappropriation of Science - Dewey's Quest for Certainty Revisited Tibor Solymosi (Case Western Reserve University) - Reconstruction of Neurophilosophy: Putting Neuropragmatism to Work
Session L Books-In-Progress		Trever Pearce (UNC-Charlotte) - Pragmatism's Evolution: Organism and Environment in American Philosophy Erin McKenna (University of Oregon) - Predator, Prey, and Pest: The Need for an Expanded Sense of Relatedness
Session M Books-In-Progress		Nancy McHugh (Wittenburg) - Ending Life: Incarceration, Health and Institutional Epistemic Injustice John Min (College of Southern Nevada) - Cultures of Deliberating Publics