

SURFING FOR CHANGE

Tuesday,
MARCH 27th

pro surfer and activist KYLE THIERMANN

Schedule of Events:

Sports Leadership:

Kyle will lead a discussion on using sports to draw attention to sustainability issues. All are welcome! Many of us are into athletics and even involved in varsity sports. How can you use that after graduation to make a difference in the world?

Frericks Center, Room TF 10
3:00 – 4:15pm

SEE and SGA Free Potluck Dinner:

If you can't make other events or want to get to know Kyle in a more casual setting, come grab dinner with us and bring a little something to share! Sponsored by SGA and SEE, all are welcome!

McGinnis Multipurpose room
5:30 – 7:00pm

“Surfing for Change: Today’s Youth and the Green Movement”:

Kyle will present on his story and how WE, the youth, have the power to do something great. Kyle has his own hit YouTube series, “Surfing for Change,” has received a Brower Youth Award, has appeared on TED Talks, and much more – and he's only 22 years old!! Come hear from him how he got his start as a Green Business major, what motivates him to work so hard for the environment, and what you can do to join the movement – no matter your major or interests! Open to all.

Kennedy Union Ballroom
8:00pm
