

A TIME TO HONOR

THE 19TH ANNUAL MATTIE DAVIS AND JOSEPH KANAK COMMUNITY BUILDERS AWARD

Sponsored by the Fitz Center for Leadership in Community at the University of Dayton

This award honors a Dayton resident who exemplifies vision and compassion toward neighborhood and community. The winner will be recognized during the CityLinks Neighborhood Leadership Conference luncheon, April 7, 2017, at the 1700 S. Patterson Building on the University of Dayton's River Campus.

Before her passing, Mattie Davis held a major position in organizing the Edgemont Neighborhood Coalition in 1978. She also played a lead role in producing the award-winning Edgemont Solar Garden. Joe Kanak was involved in virtually every initiative sponsored by the Northeast Priority Board and Old North Dayton Development Corporation. He was the second recipient of the Mattie Davis Community Builders Award. Following his passing, Kanak's name was added to the award in tribute to his memory and legacy. The accomplishments of both Davis and Kanak are an inspiration to Dayton residents and future community leaders.

Do you know someone who exemplifies compassion and dedication to their community? Would you like to nominate that person for their leadership efforts within the city or a neighborhood?

Nominations will be received until Feb. 7, 2017.

To nominate someone for this award, please complete the information on the attached page. The winner and the nominator will be notified by Feb. 20, 2017.

3. What outcomes were achieved?

- List and describe neighborhood community projects achieved due to the nominee's efforts.
- Identify who benefited as a result of the projects.
- Describe how the neighborhood community benefited from these projects, and describe their significance.

4. Is the nominee's service in a leadership capacity in their neighborhood or community?

- Organizational founder?
- Board of directors role?
- Liaison or partner with organizations committed to neighborhood revitalization?

Please return this form to Char Cook Robinson at crobinson1@udayton.edu. For questions or more information, call 937-229-4641.

Fitz Center for Leadership in Community
University of Dayton
300 College Park
Dayton, OH 45469-1480
Attention: Char Cook Robinson