

SUSTAINABILITY WEEK

Oct. 19-25

Monday, Oct. 19th - Wednesday, Oct. 21st

Greeks Go Green

11am-2pm in KU Plaza

Greek life organizations will be educating UD about the importance of making more sustainable decisions. They will be handing out reusable water bottles, reusable grocery bags, brochures, and recycled pens and pencils. Thanks to Tri-Beta, Theta Phi, Zeta, Sig Nu, & Alpha Phi!

Monday, October 19th

River Mobile

4pm-6pm in C Lot

This will be an opportunity for students and faculty to walk through the River Mobile and learn about water sustainability in Dayton.

Rivers Institute Movie Night

7pm-9pm in Artstreet Studio B

UD's Rivers Institute will be showing the Blue Gold which examines environmental and political implications of the planet's dwindling water supply. Following the movie will be a panel discussion about water sustainability on a local scale. There will be pizza and refreshments.

Tuesday, October 20th

Distinguished Speaker: Ellen Gustafson

7pm in KU Ballroom

Ellen Gustafson is a sustainable food system activist, author, innovator and social entrepreneur. Gustafson previously co-founded FEED Projects, a charitable company. FEED has provided over 60 million school meals to children around the world. Ellen has served as a U.S. Spokesperson for the UN World Food Program and a terrorism research reporter for ABC.

Wednesday, October 21st

The Bunny Movement: Animal Ethics Speaker

7pm in Chudd Auditorium (Science Center 255)

Professor Diane Dunham from the Philosophy Department will be discussing what animal testing is, the moral issue of using non-ethical products, and what our role, as consumers, is in our capitalistic society.

Thursday, October 22nd

The Bunny Movement: Vendors

1pm-6pm in Humanities Plaza

(Rain Location: 3pm-6pm VWK Main)

Vendors local to Dayton will be selling cruelty-free products (soaps, shampoos, cosmetics, etc.) and handing out free samples and coupons in order to promote being ethical consumers. Be sure to bring your non-ethical products to trade in for discounted cruelty-free products! (products that don't say "Not tested on Animals" or "Cruelty-Free"). For more information check out the free apps "Bunny Free" and "Cruelty-Free" or PETA's website.

Trivia night

7:30-8:30pm in The Hangar, KU

Test your environmental knowledge for a chance to win prizes during trivia with your UD community.

Friday, October 23rd

Sustainability Week Cookout

3:30pm-6 pm at ArtStreet Amphitheater

A sustainable cookout will be taking place in which students will be able to eat some organic food and learn about other sustainable movements taking place on campus. There will be tables set up for different organizations that are involved in environmental movements on campus to reach out to students.

Saturday, October 24th

Campus Clean-up

12pm-3pm at Art Street Amphitheater

We will be walking around campus picking up trash and making campus look more beautiful!

Sunday, October 25th

7:00pm in Sears Auditorium

ReVolv Club will be speaking about the importance of using solar energy.
