What's Being Said About the Forum?

"With online, in class and in the field experience the Forum truly prepares students for future careers."

"I have been teaching for 15 years and I think the Forum provided me with great foundation for my teaching at CJ."

"The FORUM has offered UD students who have received the FORUM Certificate to be extremely well positioned for being hired for Catholic School, or, parish ministry positions following graduation. The FORUM is in sync with Pope Francis's call for nurturing missionary skills to implement the "Art of Accompaniment" for mentoring and guiding children and young adults into deeper knowledge and relationship with Jesus. This is a UD opportunity you do not want to miss!"
