CULTIVATING CULTURAL CURIOSITY

at the UNIVERSITY of DAYTON since 1961

FALL SEMESTER 2017

Sunday, October 1, 3:00 PM

Vanguard Legacy Concert
CLAREMONT TRIO

Sears Recital Hall

Alumnae of the Juilliard School, this accomplished trio of women is known for “playing with passion and precision.” Their program will include work by Fanny Mendelssohn and Ludwig Beethoven.

Tuesday, October 10, 7:30 PM

JOAN SORIANO

Kennedy Union’s Boll Theatre

Hailing from the Dominican Republic, Soriano’s guitar and percussion ensemble features the irresistible rhythms of bachata, now among the most popular genres of Latin music.

Sunday, November 19, 3:00 PM

Vanguard Legacy Concert
TELEGRAPH QUARTET

Sears Recital Hall

Performances by this San Francisco string quartet—recent grand prize winners of the prestigious Fischhoff Chamber Music Competition—have been described as “stunning” and “joyous.”

WED, November 29, 7:30 PM

Cityfolk Jazznet Legacy Concert
BRAD MEHLDAU TRIO

Sears Recital Hall

One of the most lyrical and intimate voices of contemporary jazz piano, Brad Mehldau has been called “the most influential jazz pianist of the last 20 years” (The New York Times). Meldau is joined by Larry Grenadier (bass) and Jeff Ballard (drums).

SPRING SEMESTER 2018

Wednesday, February 7, 7:30 PM

THIRD COAST PERCUSSION: *Paddle to the Sea
Kennedy Union’s Boll Theatre

This adventurous Grammy-winning quartet takes on the theme of water, the environment and our interconnections with a riveting multi-media performance. Co-sponsored by the Hanley Sustainability Institute.

Wednesday, March 7, 7:30 PM

CUARTETO TANGUERO

Sears Recital Hall

With bandoneon, violin, piano and bass, this chamber group strikes an elegant balance between traditional tango style and a contemporary ease, introducing new audiences to a classic Latin genre.

Sunday, March 11, 4:00 PM

Vanguard Legacy Concert
ST. PETERSBURG PIANO QUARTET

Sears Recital Hall

Anchored by its founding violinist Alla Aranovskya and violist Boris Vayner, this fresh chamber group includes the award-winning cellist Thomas Mesa and pianist Tao Lin. Critics have described their performances as “passionate and virtuosic.”

Wednesday, April 11, 7:30 PM

Cityfolk Jazznet Legacy Concert
ANAT COHEN’s Tentet

Kennedy Union Ballroom

Led by Anat Cohen, the most acclaimed jazz clarinetist of the past decade, this astounding collective of ten musicians weaves an exuberant and arresting tapestry of sound.
