Total hours = 18 semester hours

RECOGNIZED. RELEVANT. REWARDING.

- Students in Sport Management should complete ECO 203 and MGT 201 and have a minimum of a 3.0 cumulative GPA before setting up appointment with the School of Business Advising Center to discuss the MBA Ready Sport Management Program and application process.
- To apply to the MBA Ready program go to https://www.udayton.edu/business/academics/advising/mba\_ready\_app.php. Follow up by email to Jamie Riley at jriley1@udayton.edu to set up an appointment to discuss the MBA Ready Program.
- If you successfully complete the MBA-Ready Sport Management Program you will receive an undergraduate Minor in Business Administration when you graduate. Before you graduate, contact your current Academic Advisor for Sport Management to have them verify you have successfully met all of the Minor in Business Administration requirements. Your advisor will contact the Registrar's office to have the Minor in Business Administration added to your official transcript upon graduation.
- Important: Students must earn a minimum grade of C- in all of the MBA Ready required undergraduate courses and a C or above in all of the MBA graduate level Foundation classes in order to earn the MBA Ready Sport Management Minor in Business Administration.
- Offerings of all classes are tentative and subject to change by the department.
- Students must be accepted into the MBA Ready Sport Management Program in order to register for any MBA graduate level Foundation classes through this program. Students must register for MBA Foundation classes through the MBA Office (937-229-3733, U.D. 's River Campus Room M2500) and must have Senior status to take MBA Foundation courses through this program.
- Completing the above coursework does not guarantee admission into the U.D. MBA graduate program. You must complete and meet all MBA graduate admission requirements and apply and be accepted into the U.D. MBA program. Please schedule a meeting with the MBA Program (graduate office) at U.D.'s River Campus, Room M2500, (937-229-3733) prior to taking any MBA classes. Registration for any of the MBA classes must be completed by the MBA Office. Students should have a minimum cumulative GPA of a 3.0 to apply to the graduate MBA Program. The MBA Office website is: www.udayton.edu/business/master\_of\_business\_administration. Questions about the MBA Program and admissions requirements should be addressed to the U.D. MBA Office.
- Continue to meet each semester with your current academic advisor in Sport Management for academic planning and also with Jamie Riley, School of Business, to ensure you are taking the correct classes and can fit the MBA Ready Minor into your course load and remaining semesters. The School of Business will assist you in registering for undergraduate business classes – even if the class shows closed, you should contact the School of Business Advising Center, Miriam Hall, Room 108, 937-229-2065 for wait list information for closed classes.
