

DEPARTMENT: Accounting
POSITION TITLE: Assistant/Associate Professor
POSITION IS: Full-time/Nine-months/Tenure track
POSTING DATE: June 7, 2017
CLOSING DATE: Open until filled
DATE AVAILABLE: August 16, 2018

The University of Dayton Department of Accounting invites applications for a tenure track position at the Assistant or Associate Professor level beginning August 2018. Qualified individuals in all specialty areas of accounting will be considered. Qualified candidates must possess the demonstrated ability to teach advanced accounting courses at the undergraduate and graduate (masters) levels. Candidates must meet and have the ability to maintain AACSB business and accounting accreditation requirements for “Scholarly Academic” (SA) status. Candidates must be at least ABD (completed all course and comprehensive exam requirements for a PhD) in accounting (or equivalent) at an AACSB or EQUIS accredited institution. Candidates must have a relevant professional certification (e.g. CPA, CMA) or relevant professional experience. Strong writing skills are required. To qualify as Associate, candidates must meet all previously specified requirements, hold a PhD in accounting (or equivalent) at an AACSB or EQUIS accredited institution, and have a demonstrated successful record of research, teaching and service.

Preference will be given to candidates holding a PhD in accounting (or equivalent) from an AACSB and/or EQUIS accredited institution, ability to teach in multiple areas, and relevant university teaching experience. We prefer candidates who have experience mentoring students and/or staff from diverse backgrounds. Demonstrated collegiality, ability to work collaboratively, and good interpersonal skills are essential to working with constituents across campus (i.e., faculty, staff, students, and administration). Effective, demonstrated verbal skills are preferred.

The University of Dayton, founded in 1850 by the Society of Mary, is a top ten Catholic research university. The University seeks outstanding, diverse faculty and staff who value its mission and share its commitment to academic excellence in teaching, research and artistic creativity, the development of the whole person and leadership and service in the local and global community. The University is one of the nation’s largest Catholic universities, with an enrollment of more than 11,200 students, including over 8,600 undergraduates. The institution’s hallmark is learning that spans the boundaries of the liberal arts and the professions, integrates theory and practice, and reaches out to the greater community in order to strengthen public and civic life. Its culture is defined by a strong commitment to collegiality, excellence in serving students and one another, and a sense of inclusive community.

The University is situated on a picturesque 388-acre campus comprising over 40 academic, recreational, athletic, and administrative facilities. For a virtual tour of campus visit: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JGmIGQDsKp0>

The Dayton, Ohio metropolitan area, also known as the Miami Valley, has a population of approximately one million and is a diverse community boasting a rich history of innovation and invention, a renewed downtown, historic neighborhoods, and a highly favorable cost of living and quality of life. Dayton is also in close proximity to both Columbus and Cincinnati. More information on the Dayton region can be found at <http://daytoncvb.com/>.

Further information about the University and the Department can be found at: <https://www.udayton.edu/business/academics/undergraduate/accounting/index.php>.

To apply for the position, go to: <http://jobs.udayton.edu/postings/23366>

Applications will be reviewed beginning June 15, 2017. Interviews will begin at the American Accounting Association Annual Meeting in August 2017 in San Diego. The position will remain open until filled.

To attain its Catholic and Marianist mission, the University is committed to the principles of diversity, inclusion and affirmative action and to equal opportunity policies and practices. As an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer, we will not discriminate against minorities, females, protected veterans, individuals with disabilities, or on the basis of sexual orientation or gender identity.