PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE (ADDITIONAL DETAILS)

June 2010 – present. Associate Professor of Accounting, School of Accountancy, & Director, Board Culture & Behavioral Dynamics, Center for Corporate Governance, Michael J. Coles College of Business, Kennesaw State University, Kennesaw, Georgia. Pursue activities comprising research, teaching and professional service. Taught courses in financial reporting, financial and managerial accounting, external and internal auditing, forensic accounting, and business valuation. Published numerous papers and books, served on editorial boards, and made numerous professional presentations in the U.S. and abroad. Won several awards.

Sept 2009 – Apr 2010 Principal, Infogix Advisory Services, Infogix, Inc. Naperville, Illinois. Actively launched a practice for Infogix, Inc. featuring service and software offerings in governance, risk, and compliance, and continuous controls monitoring (CCM).

Jan 2006 – Jun 2009 Partner, National Corporate Governance Group (NCGG), Grant Thornton LLP, Chicago, Illinois. Conducted Board and Audit Committee briefings, engaged in thought leadership activities (e.g., authoring 2009 COSO Monitoring guidance), and helped with client and practice development. Worked closely with Business Advisory Services, Economic Advisory Services, and Global Public Sector practices on client development and follow up meetings in marketing solutions to client prospects. Represented the firm on boards of several professional organizations. Made several professional presentations internationally, including with then COSO Chairman, Dr. Larry Rittenberg, in Tokyo, Japan, in March 2008.

July 2002 – Dec 2005 Sarbanes-Oxley Advisor, National Advisory Services (Aug 2004 – Dec 2005) and Assistant Director of Thought Leadership, Fraud Investigation & Dispute Services (FIDS), Ernst & Young LLP, Chicago, Illinois, July 2002 – July 2004. Directly reporting to then FIDS Managing Partner, Michael Emmert, my thought leadership and technical consultative role encompassed product/service innovation (new offerings such as The Corporate Conflict Value Model that was presented to GE and attained a “patent pending” status from the U.S. Patent Office), academic partnering and research/professional publications, consultation on the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, laws and regulations (esp. conflict checks and auditor independence matters), and professional standards, crafting leading-edge forensic training and professional development programs. I was involved in meetings with clients and client prospects at very large Fortune 100 companies. Served as in-house FIDS faculty for the “Fraud Risk: Awareness and Response” training offered nationally to over 1,000 E&Y partners and principals.

Jun 1998 – May 2002 Principal, Assurance Professional Standards Group, Arthur Andersen LLP, Chicago World Headquarters, Illinois. Focus was on consultation on Auditing Standards and furthering specific Assurance and Business Advisory Services strategic initiatives, such as firm wide roll out of international auditing standards, fraud auditing, auditing derivatives, continuous auditing methodologies and academic research on auditing. Consulted with clients on technical auditing matters, in-house development of a fraud detection model based upon academic research. Participated in the quality control reviews of Andersen publications Cracking the Value Code (2000), Value Rx (2001), and represented the firm on the Financial Instruments Task Force of the AICPA that produced SAS No. 92: Auditing Derivatives, Hedging Activities, and Investments in Securities, and an AICPA Audit Guide on Derivatives. Drafted firm comment letters on exposure drafts of new and proposed standards, prepared briefs and speeches for Andersen's CEO, and U.S. Country Managing Partner. Represented the firm during meetings and conferences of the American Accounting Association, and the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA). Was a key firm liaison on a multi-million dollar Andersen/MIT research collaboration.

Aug 1995 – Jun 1998 Visiting Assistant Professor of Accountancy, Department of Accountancy, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (UIUC), Champaign, Illinois. Primarily taught in the innovative undergraduate accountancy program, Project Discovery. For 1997-98, was faculty coordinator for the Professional Development Workshop Series (Accy 300) and taught Auditing (Accy 404) to graduate students in the M.S. in International Accountancy (MSA) program. In 1996-97, co-taught Assurance & Attestation (Accy 341) with Dr. Ira Solomon, then KPMG Peat Marwick Distinguished Professor of Accountancy. During Spring and Summer 1996, taught Advanced Auditing (Accy 342). Published research papers in academic and professional journals, including several with UIUC Emeritus Professor of Accountancy, Dr. Andrew D. Bailey, Jr., my former Ph.D. Advisor at The Ohio State University. Was guest lecturer at the Executive Development Center, and made several presentations to visiting Chinese banker delegations from 1997 – 2000 (e.g., Bank of Communications, Shanghai Pudong Development Bank, China Construction Bank, etc.).

Sept 1986 – July 1988 Staff Auditor, Ernst & Whinney (later Ernst & Young, now EY), Chartered Accountants, Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates (UAE). Primarily audited international as well as government-owned companies in the oil and gas, banking and investment, retail, and hospitality industries.

Nov 1985 – Aug 1986 Junior Partner, G.R. Moorti and Associates (father's firm), Chartered Accountants, Bombay, India. Engaged in internal audit consultancy assignments under the direction of Mr. G. R. Moorti, LL.B., FCA (India), retired Group Chief Auditor for GlaxoSmithKline, a UK-based global pharmaceutical company, for the India region. Performed external audits of small businesses, partnerships and private companies.

May 1982 – May 1985 Articled Clerk (Professional Internship), S.P. Chopra & Co., Chartered Accountants, 1982-85, Bombay, India. Served as an articled trainee, as part of Chartered Accountancy certification requirements, under Mr. Y. K. Shankardass (FCA, England & Wales), senior partner. Gained experience in internal and external audits of companies in the banking, textile, glass, machine tools, and hospitality industries.
