Dear Mrs. Sluder,

I am writing to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated January 13, 2007, announcing my application for the Public Relations Internship position had been rejected.

I'd like to thank you for discussing the details of the position and the opportunity to meet with you and your staff.

I am disappointed to learn that I am no longer being considered for the Public Relations Internship position. However I'm glad to know that you found a candidate whose qualifications match your employment needs.

Leave It To Us, Inc. is a highly respected organization and provides an excellent opportunity for anyone interested in Public Relations. Thanks again for your previous consideration. I would appreciate your reconsideration of a future candidacy, should a position become available that you feel is more compatible with my qualifications.

Sincerely,
