

Leadership Accountability: Creating and Sustaining a High-Performance Organization

APRIL 26, 2017
8:30 A.M.–4:30 P.M.

In today's work place, the concept of accountability has taken center stage as a vital business concern. Yet it is all too often confused with punishment, fault-finding, blame, and guilt. If employees take ownership for the success or failure of tasks, projects or initiatives, then an environment of trust, alignment, communication and accountability can be created.

Linda Galindo will show you how to instill accountability in the workplace starting with yourself. You will learn how to create an environment of ownership for results before the fact that creates clear agreements, execution on plans and success for your team, your organization, and yourself.

This program will help leaders:

- Apply the learning to “start where people are” in their leadership and accountability journey
- Utilize the foundation 12-point checklist to affirm accountability at work individually and collectively
- Create a vision for accountable leadership and design three relevant and effective steps to take back to work with clear benefits that make the journey compelling and sustaining
