

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

FEBRUARY 12, 2015

8:30 AM–4:30 PM

GOING FROM PEER TO SUPERVISOR

This high-energy, interactive workshop guides new supervisors through the transition from individual contributor to leader. Through self-assessments, small group exercises, group discussion and role playing, we will explore the strategies, and behaviors and critical interactions that lead to becoming an effective supervisor.

THIS PROGRAM WILL HELP LEADERS:

- Understand the role of a manager or supervisor and how it impacts others.
- Effectively manage your team through change.
- Become a more effective manager or supervisor.

Marcia Venus

Dr. Marcia Venus is well known as an organizational consultant and executive coach. Her expertise and broad organizational experience provide for the unique and challenging needs of top executives as well as individuals at all levels. In consulting with client companies, Venus has designed and developed programs and services to support leadership development and organizational growth in areas such as organizational culture, team building, employee recommitment, leading change initiatives, new executive assimilation, organizational politics and other organizational solutions.