

JULIA K. CIRCLE

EDUCATION

- Master of Physician Assistant Studies, Kettering College of Medical Arts, OH, July 2010
  - Academic and Clinical Distinction Award
  - Clinton Trott M.D. Recognition Award for clinical excellence and professionalism
- Bachelor of Sciences in Environmental Science, Northern Arizona University, May 2006
  - Extended major in biology, minor in Chemistry, Cum Laude, Liberal Studies Honors

CURRENT LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS

- National Physician Assistant Certification 1088574
- Ohio License 50.003128RX
- NPI and DEA registration holder
- PALS and BLS certification

WORK EXPERIENCE

August 2018- present- Department of Physician Assistant Education, University of Dayton, Dayton, OH

- Director of Didactic Education (January 2019- present)- Oversee the didactic phase of the UDPA program including ongoing curriculum and course development, execution of assessment of student learning, focusing on high-quality evidence based teaching.
- Assistant Clinical Professor (August 2018- present) - Full-Time Non-Tenure Track Clinical Faculty; Primary responsibilities include teaching and moderating modules, assessing student performance, participating in admissions process, student mentoring and advising. Specific duties to my position include longitudinal teaching of history and physical components of education and coordination of hands-on skills and lab components.

University of Dayton Service

- Honors and Awards Committee (2018-2021)
  - Committee Chair 2019-2020 and 2020-2021
- DEI taskforce (2020- present)
- Wellness Committee (2021-present)

Areas of Clinical Practice

- Pediatric Hospital Medicine - Perform appropriate and complete history and physicals for patients requiring admission to the general pediatrics team with creation of medical plan in collaboration with the pediatrician. Present for daily rounding and management/coordination of care plans for inpatients. Provide excellent communication to parents, attending physicians, collaborating services and support staff. Complete appropriate transfer/ discharge documentation.
- Orthopedics - Perform appropriate history and physicals for patients presenting with orthopedic or sports medicine injuries and complaints. Assist in surgery with technical and inpatient support and responsibilities. Skills include surgical first assist, imaging interpretation, fracture reduction and cast placement.
  - Lead Advanced Practice Provider- Responsible for coordinating services provided by the Advanced Practice Providers (APP) in the orthopedics and sports medicine departments including recruiting, scheduling, training/orientation, performance planning and evaluation, professional development and problem solving issues related to the practice of APPs within these departments. Liaison between faculty, administration and APPs.
- Emergency Department- Perform appropriate history and physicals for medical and trauma patients presenting to the Emergency Department. Coordinate and interpret proper workup and consults as indicated. Skills include suturing of minor and complex lacerations.

Previous Research: Keim Genetics Lab, Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, AZ

- Individual Honors Research Project - Designed and implemented an optimized molecular technique. Analyzed data to explore genetic and geographic relationships among two prominent tick vectors. Communicated results through a final presentation and scientific poster before research symposium.
- Undergraduate Research – Performed research support on Homeland Security contracts toward the genetic detection and characterization of potential bio weapon threats.
- Participated and named in publication. Applied and Environmental Microbiology (Nov. 2007), 73, 7465-7470.

LEADERSHIP/VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

- Miami Country Medical Reserve Corps (2021-present)
- Healer's Art (2020-present)
- Secretary of Hoffman United Methodist Church Board (2019-present)
- Adult Group Leader Hoffman United Methodist Church (2013- present)
- Global Missions Chair Hoffman United Methodist Church (2015- present)
- Past President for the Society of Physician Assistants in Pediatrics (2013-2016)
- Clinical Preceptor for Ohio Dominican University Physician Assistant Students (2014)
- West Ohio United Methodist Conference District Delegate, Miami Valley District (2014)
- Clinical provider for annual medical mission for Makarios, Dominican Republic (2009, 2012, 2013)
  - Medical Team Leader (2014)