

COLLEGE STUDENT PERSONNEL

MSE

UNIVERSITY of
DAYTON

School of Education
and Health Sciences

ABOUT UD GRADUATE PROGRAMS

The University of Dayton is recognized as a doctoral and research-intensive university, offering more than 50 disciplinary and cross-disciplinary advanced degree programs — making it easy for you to find a program to meet your needs. We are committed to facilitating and supporting your success by providing excellent advanced education opportunities and services that connect learning, research and scholarship with leadership and service — the Catholic and Marianist values of the University of Dayton.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Apply online. It's easy and free!

- » Complete your online application at udayton.edu/apply.
- » You must have an undergraduate cumulative average of 2.75 or higher on a 4.0 scale.
- » If you have less than a 2.75 cumulative average, you must take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). For further information, contact Gina Seiter at 937-229-3103.
- » Submit official academic transcripts directly from all previously attended colleges or universities.
- » Include three letters of recommendation from qualified individuals.
- » Submit your personal statement.
- » Indicate on your application if you are interested in being considered for an assistantship.
- » You will be contacted to interview with program faculty.

→ COURSE OF STUDY

PROGRAM DETAILS ↓

The 39-hour master's degree in college student personnel is designed to provide you with the practice and theoretical perspective to be successful in a variety of careers on a university campus. Our course work emphasizes your professional development — working with individuals and groups of students and designing campus environments. As a full-time student, you can complete the program in two academic years. We also offer a part-time track.

Visit go.udayton.edu/collegestudentpersonnel for more information.

COURSES ↓

- » Perspectives in Higher Education
- » Student Development's Role in Learning
- » Learning in Community
- » Leadership in College and University Environment
- » Research and Evaluation in Human Services
- » Student Cultures and Development
- » Administration and Organization in College Student Personnel
- » Learning Design
- » Internship in College Student Personnel (three terms)
- » Educational Structures in Postsecondary Education
- » International and Global Higher Education
- » History of Higher Education in the United States
- » Scholarly Project in College Student Personnel/Higher Education

FINANCIAL AID

To receive a formal financial aid award as a graduate student, you must be admitted to the University of Dayton. For loan and grant consideration, you are required to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, available at fafsa.gov. Submit the FAFSA to the processing agency and list the University of Dayton (code #003127) to receive your aid results.

Although financial aid information is processed throughout the year for graduate students, May 1 is the priority consideration deadline. It is recommended that you submit your completed FAFSA to the processing agency by May 1 for financial aid consideration for the upcoming fall, spring and summer semesters.

For more information about financial aid opportunities, visit finaid.udayton.edu or contact the Office of Financial Aid at 800-427-5029.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

→ Visit udayton.edu/education/edc ←
for current application deadlines.

Applicants interested in graduate assistantships through the Division of Student Development should apply by January 24 for fall enrollment.*

IT'S NOT JUST A CAREER MOVE. IT'S A CALLING.

Prepare for a career dedicated to service on your campus and learn how to make a difference in the lives of those in your community and university with a Master of Science in Education (MSE) degree from the University of Dayton. As a future professional in college student personnel, you'll gain experience in a variety of settings, impacting the lives of individuals and supporting your community as a whole.

UD'S PROGRAM OFFERS YOU:

- » A low student-to-faculty ratio for meaningful, personalized learning.
- » The opportunity for first-hand experience during practicum and internship experiences.
- » The University of Dayton Student Affairs Graduate Association (UDSAGA), the graduate student organization for college student personnel and higher education administration students.
- » The chance to expand your horizons and learn about another culture through the study abroad experience in South America.
- » The opportunity to gain experience — and a paid stipend — while you study through a variety of graduate assistantship opportunities throughout the University.
- » An expanded curriculum that includes international and global higher education.
- » The opportunity to build communities through critical reflection.

CONTACT US

Program Coordinator

Molly A. Schaller, Ph.D.
mschaller1@udayton.edu

Faculty

Molly A. Schaller, Ph.D.
mschaller1@udayton.edu

Michele Welkener, Ph.D.
mwelkener1@udayton.edu

Nasser Razek, Ed.D.
nrzek@udayton.edu

Graduate Assistantships
go.udayton.edu/sehs/gradassistants

Department of Counselor Education and Human Services

300 College Park
Dayton, OH 45469-2962

Phone: 937-229-3644

Fax: 937-229-1055

udayton.edu/education/edc

UNIVERSITY of

DAYTON