

HUMAN SERVICES

MSE

UNIVERSITY of DAYTON

School of Education and Health Sciences

ABOUT UD GRADUATE PROGRAMS

The University of Dayton is recognized as a doctoral and research-intensive university, offering more than 50 disciplinary and cross-disciplinary advanced degree programs — making it easy for you to find a program to meet your needs. We are committed to facilitating and supporting your success by providing excellent advanced education opportunities and services that connect learning, research and scholarship with leadership and service — the Catholic and Marianist values of the University of Dayton.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Apply online. It's easy and free!

- » Complete your online application at udayton.edu/apply.
- » You must have an undergraduate cumulative average of 2.75 or higher on a 4.0 scale.
- » If you have less than a 2.75 cumulative average, you must take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). For further information, contact Gina Seiter at 937-229-3103.
- » Submit official academic transcripts directly from all previously attended colleges or universities.
- » Include three letters of recommendation from qualified individuals.
- » Submit your personal statement.
- » Indicate on your application if you are interested in being considered for an assistantship.
- » You will be contacted to schedule an interview with program faculty.

→ COURSE OF STUDY

PROGRAM DETAILS ↓

This 30-hour master's degree program is for you if you're interested in enhancing your human service skills. A master's degree with a concentration in human services will provide you with more depth and insight to gain a better understanding of human development and counseling techniques. The program is appropriate for persons in the clergy, nursing, criminal justice and other related fields.

Note: This degree does not lead to obtaining Ohio's professional counseling license or professional clinical counseling license.

Visit go.udayton.edu/humanservices for more information.

COURSES ↓

- » Personality and Human Development Across the Lifespan
- » Research and Evaluation in Human Services
- » Counseling Diverse Populations
- » Human Services Administration
- » Career Counseling
- » Theories and Techniques of Counseling
- » Counseling Techniques Lab
- » Theories and Techniques of Group Counseling
- » Couples and Family Counseling

ELECTIVE COURSES ↓

- » Professional Seminars with Clinical Implications

FINANCIAL AID

To receive a formal financial aid award as a graduate student, you must be admitted to the University of Dayton. For loan and grant consideration, you are required to submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, available at fafsa.gov. Submit the FAFSA to the processing agency and list the University of Dayton (code #003127) to receive your aid results.

Although financial aid information is processed throughout the year for graduate students, May 1 is the priority consideration deadline. It is recommended that you submit your completed FAFSA to the processing agency by May 1 for financial aid consideration for the upcoming fall, spring and summer semesters.

For more information about financial aid opportunities, visit finaid.udayton.edu or contact the Office of Financial Aid at 800-427-5029.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

→ Visit udayton.edu/education/edc ← for current application deadlines.

IT'S NOT JUST A CAREER MOVE. IT'S A CALLING.

Prepare for a career dedicated to compassionate service and learn how to make a difference in the lives of those in your community with a Master of Science in Education (MSE) degree from the University of Dayton. As a future human services professional, you'll gain experience in a variety of settings, impacting the lives of individuals and supporting your community as a whole.

UD'S PROGRAM OFFERS YOU:

- » A low student-to-faculty ratio for meaningful, personalized learning.
- » The chance to expand your horizons and learn about another culture through the study abroad experience in South America.
- » The opportunity to gain experience — and a paid stipend — while you study through a variety of graduate assistantship opportunities throughout the University.
- » A choice of classrooms. With the convenience of two locations, you can study on our UD campus or at our off-campus facility in Dublin, Ohio.
- » The opportunity to build communities through critical reflection.

CONTACT US

Program Coordinator

Alan Demmitt, Ph.D., LPCC-S
ademmitt1@udayton.edu

Graduate Assistantships

go.udayton.edu/sehs/gradassistants

Department of Counselor Education and Human Services

300 College Park
Dayton, OH 45469-2962

Phone: 937-229-3644

Fax: 937-229-1055

udayton.edu/education/edc

UNIVERSITY of

DAYTON