

ASSESSMENT ACTIVITY FORM – Community Volunteer

Criminal Justice Studies

Director: Dr. James A. Adamitis

Date: 05-16-05

OUTCOMES/MEASURES UTILIZED	RESULTS
Outcome Three - Measures Utilized Outcome 3 - Personal Management Attributes: Students will demonstrate the ability to understand and analyze interpersonal conflicts through academic exercises and service activities related to the three major components of the American Criminal Justice System: law enforcement, the courts and correction. Measure 1 - At least 40% of graduating criminal justice majors will have participated in off-campus practicums involving the courts, corrections agencies, or law enforcement agencies. These students will have recorded their experiences in writing. The director of the program will review these records annually to assure that these students have had significant interaction with the justice system personnel, clients and alleged perpetrators. Measure 2 - At least 30% of graduating criminal justice studies majors will have participated in humanitarian events sponsored by the University and/or the program's national honor society or student association. They will produce a written record of their experiences in writing to be placed in their portfolios for review by the director of the program and/or by program's multi-disciplinary academic advisory committee.	1) A review of the program's data base files on 7 criminal justice studies graduating seniors for December, 2004, indicated 0 students (0%) successfully completed a field practicum; 1 student (14%) volunteered their services to a given justice agency. A review of the program's data base files on 34 criminal justice studies graduating seniors for May, 2005, indicated 26 students (76%) successfully completed a field practicum; 1 student (3%) volunteered their services to a given justice agency. CONSULT ATTACHMENT: "Criminal Justice Studies Internship Placements 2004-2005," to identify specific agencies and students who undertook an internship 2) A review of the program's data base files on criminal justice studies graduating seniors for December, 2004, indicated 1 student (14%) participated in a humanitarian event sponsored by the University. .

Brief Analysis:

As with past assessments, it still is evident further initiatives should be ventured for encouraging students to participate in humanitarian events sponsored by the University of Dayton and select student associations