UPDATE

The University of Dayton Group Long Term Care Insurance Program Enrollment Period has been extended to: Friday, November 6th!

As some employees were unable to apply for this benefit before the deadline, we have extended the enrollment period. The deadline for the Group Long Term Care Program is now Friday, November 6th, 2015.

If you didn't get a chance to attend one of the educational meetings, join us for one of our final educational webinars by utilizing the link below:

Genworth Educational Webinars
Tuesday, November 3rd	10:30 am	1:30 pm

Learn more about the plan from the comfort of your home or office, or any place your computer or laptop has an Internet connection. Not only can you participate in the Webinar, but so can your spouse, brother, brother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, parents, grandparents and all other eligible relatives based on your status as a University of Dayton employee. Just forward the link to them so they can sign-on!

With the introduction of this Group Long Term Care Insurance Program, there is streamlined underwriting if you are an eligible employee under age 66 and apply during this enrollment period. This streamlined underwriting process is only available during this enrollment and will not be available during the traditional annual benefits enrollment. (Employees age 66 and over may also apply for coverage but will be subject to the long form underwriting.)
