Four Warthog Piglets Are Our Newest Zoo Babies

We are excited to announce the birth of four adorable warthog piglets as exciting additions to the roster of newborn friends! Born on May 1, the two male and two female piglets weighed about 4 pounds at 10 days old and continue to grow at a steady, healthy pace. As they grow, they will acquire two pairs of tusks from their upper and lower canine teeth. Even though warthogs may seem ferocious they would rather skedaddle than engage in any sort of fight! These adorable Zoo Babies are presented by Community Health Network! They recently went on exhibit for the first time, so be sure to look for these new additions on your next Zoo visit.

It's All Song and Dance This Summer

There will be more than birds singing this summer. That's because the Zoo's annual concert series, Zoolapalooza and Animals and All That Jazz are back to offer music, food and fun for family members of all ages. The lineups have just been announced so make sure to check out the dates your favorites will be taking the stage!

Friday nights from June 20 to July 18, Zoolapalooza will have guests rockin' the night away. And while the summer heat continues, guests can keep it cool Thursday evenings from July 10 to Aug. 14 with Animals and All That Jazz presented by Indiana Members Credit Union.

Experience Simon Skjodt International Orangutan Center

2014 Indianapolis Zoo Admission Pricing and Good Any Day Tickets

Daily admission will fluctuate throughout the year at the main Zoo gate and Zoo website, but as a ticket partner of the Zoo, we will continue to offer you the benefit of a set price on admission that will be valid any day this year. In addition, you will be able to avoid the lines at the admissions office when entering the Zoo.

Weekdays

With the new pricing system that the Indianapolis Zoo has implemented this year, there may be some weekdays where guests can get a lower admission price by visiting the Indianapolis Zoo website. Please note - if a guest purchases a ticket through the general Indianapolis Zoo website, they have to lock in a specific date and a specific price. Your corporate tickets offer the convenience and flexibility of picking any day to visit (weekend, holiday, and weekday). If you have last minute change in plans, the ticket you purchased through your corporate program is valid another day – any other day through October 31, 2014!
