

Strategies for Recruiting, Retaining, and Supporting International Student Employees

Presented by:

Patricia Alvarez, Assistant Dean and Director of Multicultural Affairs

Sangita Gosalia, Associate Director of Campus Engagement (CIP)

Melissa Longino, Director of Campus Recreation

Chris Johnson, Assistant Director of Center for Student Involvement

Tim Kao, Associate Director of ISSS (CIP)

Stefanie Rich, Manager of Student Employment

Lisa Witt, Assistant Director of Career Services

Student employment can play an important role in international students' experience at UD. This session will focus on sharing why and how to incorporate intentional and educational practices to optimize recruitment, retention, and performance management of international students. Employers of international students will offer strategies and insights in their various departments.

This program is open to all UD employees.

Please feel free to bring your own lunch for this Brown Bag Program. Refreshments will be provided.

Date: Tuesday, March 10, 2015

Location: KU 331

Time: 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

To register for this Brown Bag Program, visit:

go.udayton.edu/hrtraining

