

Critical Leadership Competencies of a Catholic and Marianist University

All members of the University of Dayton community are called to be leaders in the Catholic and Marianist tradition who demonstrate competencies along three dimensions:

1. PERSONAL CHARACTER DIMENSION

- a. Develops character: strives for high integrity and honesty; is self-reflective about his/her vocation as leader; has a capacity for self-transformation and change; exhibits transparency of motives; inspires trust; models balance in work and personal time; acts in an ethical manner
- b. Strives for personal meaning: integrates faith in the transcendent dimensions of life and/or pursues a personal framework of meaning consistent with the work of leadership
- c. Develops professional and technical skills: models lifelong learning; is aware of deficiencies in skill and experience and seeks to mitigate gaps in knowledge base and ability; expands skills in problem-solving and issue analysis
- d. Possesses strong achievement drive: accepts responsibility and accountability for outcomes; demonstrates the resilience and resolve necessary to overcome obstacles and setbacks; is self-confident, optimistic and ambitious in the service of the organization
- e. Displays sound judgment: applies broad knowledge and seasoned experience when addressing complex issues; makes timely, tough decisions
- f. Demonstrates an inquisitive and inquiring nature: believes he/she is enriched by others' perspectives and experiences; learns from experience and adjusts course accordingly; is comfortable with ambiguity and uncertainty; is able to hold creative tension

2. PEOPLE/INTERPERSONAL DIMENSION

- a. Intentionally builds leadership capacity as central to our values: attracts high-caliber, diverse people; develops teams and talent with diverse capabilities; develops successors and talent pools
- b. Uses inclusive decision-making: actively solicits different perspectives and experiences when making decisions; recognizes importance of and attends to process as well as the content of activities
- c. Empowers others: creates a climate that fosters personal investment and excellence from everyone he/she influences
- d. Builds relationships and community: encourages effective working relationships through challenge and support, using sensitivity and empathy; finds common ground with others to establish a common purpose; fosters mutual trust and respect; builds community, internally and externally, in order to strengthen institutional collaboration
- e. Communicates with skill, sensitivity and candor: fosters open dialogue; listens actively; encourages open and honest expression of ideas and opinions; delivers clear, convincing and well-organized presentations

Critical Leadership Competencies of a Catholic and Marianist University

3. STRATEGIC/RESULTS DIMENSION

- a. Demonstrates continuity between actions and the Catholic and Marianist mission of the University: understands and pursues successful outcomes within the context of Catholic and Marianist values; encourages others to seek avenues that both move us toward excellence and respect the philosophical ideals upon which the University is based
- b. Is forward-looking: is open and honest in interrogating current reality and assumptions; seeks to learn from others; develops distinctive strategies to achieve competitive advantage; establishes stretch goals; continues to learn the way to realize the desired future; aligns resources to support strategic priorities
- c. Articulates a clear vision: maintains a long-term, big-picture view; foresees obstacles and opportunities; uses effective communication skills to mobilize and inspire
- d. Drives for results/executes: demonstrates and fosters a sense of urgency and strong commitment to achieving goals; assigns clear authority and accountability; directs change while maintaining operating effectiveness; monitors results; tackles problems directly and effectively
- e. Leads courageously: takes principled personal and organizational risks to do what is right and achieve organizational success, and supports others who do so; takes responsibility for outcomes
- f. Champions continuous improvement and innovation: encourages alternative approaches and new ideas; generates creative, resourceful solutions; challenges current assumptions, processes and practices with a mindset of continuous improvement