

Y O U R C U L T U R E . Y O U R C A M P U S .

A culminating celebration of ArtStreet's semester-long Global Challenge that looks to champion the worldly embrace of the 21st century University of Dayton through diverse parade, food, fashion, music and performance.

From Caldwell Apartments to the
ArtStreet Complex Grounds and Amphitheatre
April 19, 2013 - 7pm to 11pm

Start the night with the Intercultural Walk to 1World

Bring your flags, your noisemakers and your cultural spirit in joining over 100 students at the Caldwell Apartments for a walk through the south student neighborhood towards ArtStreet to champion the kick off of the 1World Celebration.

Experience music from across the Globe

Dayton's own Cityfolk will be presenting over a dozen global musicians who are coming together for the first time ever to merge the sounds of Puerto Rico, Jamaica, Saudi Arabia and the Appalachians leaving the audience dancing all night.

Move for the Greek Crash

University of Dayton's Greek system will crash 1World for a once-in-a-lifetime showcase of Step and Stroll traditions bringing men and women of all Greek heritages together for a moment that will unify the celebration and unify the campus.

Taste free food from Dayton's cultural culinary hot spots

A variety of 'tapas' style flavors of food will be cooking live, in front of your eyes, by local chefs and cooks ranging from Mexican flair to the great American diner breakfast.

Witness Culture Couture: A Global Fashion Runway

This unique outdoor fashion show will tell the story of over a dozen UD student models and their cultural influences that inspire both their heritage and their current fashion trends.

Private storytelling Moments

Special mini unplugged sessions with UD's own hitmakers Dave Zup, Lauren Eylise and Brendan Michaelis, who will share with you their backgrounds and what has inspired them to create the music they do.
