

Welcome to Dayton 2037.

What makes the University of Dayton distinctive today?

Your collegiate path is all YOU - no more “one size fits all.”

Vocation

We embrace our Marianist heritage and Catholic mission to diversify our minds and souls to be forward-thinking social and cultural change agents.

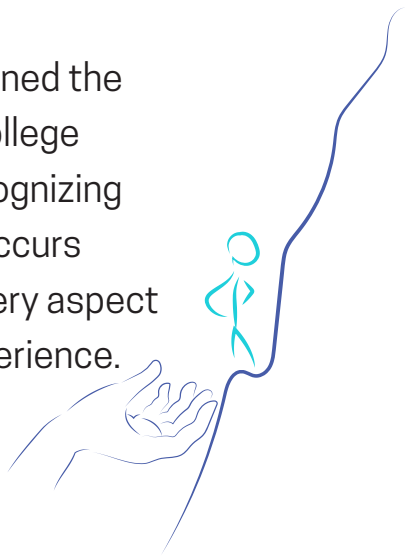

Mission

We are taking sustainability to the next level with a net zero campus carbon footprint.

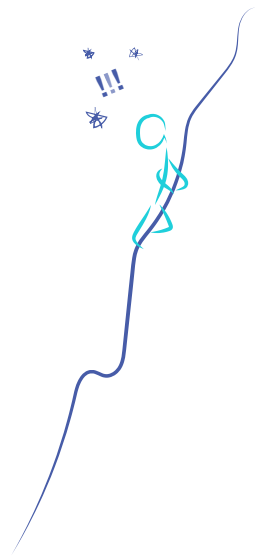

Passion

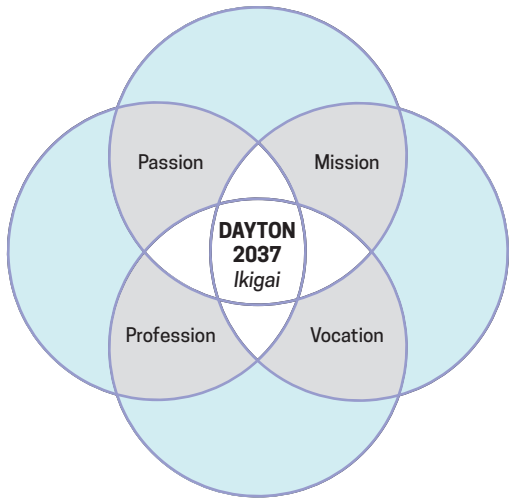

We have redefined the ecology of a college education, recognizing that learning occurs throughout every aspect of your UD experience.

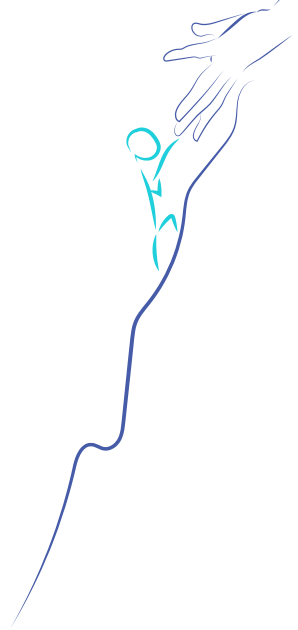

Profession

Our fully integrated approach to research connects us across communities, ideas, technology, people and disciplines.

We value the mental health and well-being of our students, faculty and staff as much as we value the world around us.

We are a global community of doers.

We are the University of Dayton.
