

Financial assistance for IMRI students

The International Marian Research Institute Financial assistance is provided once a term, i.e. up to three times a year, per applicant. Offers of aid will apply only to the term specified and are not renewed automatically, although aid requests may be submitted for subsequent academic term.

Eligibility:

An applicant must be:

- Accepted and registered for courses in the S.T.L. or S.T.D. programs at the International Marian Research Institute at the University of Dayton. Students seeking a certificate are not eligible for financial aid.
- Full-time or part-time student taking at least 3 credit hours each semester. Writing the doctoral dissertation can count as 3 credit hours of MRI 790 Dissertation Guidance toward the 12 credits required for graduation.
- If already in the program, in good academic standing, including no incomplete courses from a previous term, and a minimum grade point average of 3.0

Description:

- Grants are to be applied only to courses taken for academic credit.
- Grants will not exceed the costs of tuition based on a maximum of 18 quarter credits per semester. At $465 per quarter credit, tuition for 18 quarter credits would be $8370.
- Grants are limited to three years.

Deadlines:

Applications are due on the following schedule that is one month before the start of the University of Dayton semester, e.g.:

For Spring 2018 the application must be filed between November 1, 2017–December 8, 2017.

Completed applications are to be sent to:

The Grant Committee
International Marian Research Institute
University of Dayton
300 College Park
Dayton, OH 45469-1390

The Grant Committee of the International Marian Research will review applications after the deadline and reply at least two weeks before the start of the University of Dayton semester.
