HOUSING AND RESIDENCE LIFE

Please read the contract below and indicate your acceptance of the terms by clicking "I agree" at the bottom.

Student Housing Contract - 2016-17

This Housing Contract is made between the University of Dayton ("University") and the Student resident of University Housing ("Student"). This Contract is valid and enforceable once the Student electronically signs it. In consideration of the mutual covenants herein, the University and Student agree to the following terms and conditions:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF STUDENT HOUSING CONTRACT FOR THE 2016-17 ACADEMIC YEAR

The contract term is for the entire academic year (August 20, 2016 – May 5, 2017) and cannot be transferred or assigned. Students are subject to the University Housing Requirement as a condition of enrollment.

HOUSING ELIGIBILITY & REQUIREMENT

STUDENT: To live in University housing during the Fall and Spring terms, an undergraduate Student is required to be registered for at least eight (8) credit hours with the University. A graduate student is required to be registered for at least six (6) credit hours to live in University housing during the Fall and Spring terms. The University has the right to cancel a student’s contract if Student’s credit hour registration falls below credit hour requirements.

UNIVERSITY HOUSING REQUIREMENT: The University of Dayton has a requirement that each first- and second-year undergraduate domestic, international, conditionally admitted international student and international student enrolled in the Intensive English

If a Student withdraws from classes after moving into University housing, charges will be assessed as outlined in the Cancellation Fee Schedule section of this Contract.

Any Student who participates in a co-op, study-abroad or internship program outside a 40-mile radius of University during Fall or Spring semester will be released from his/her housing Contract per completion of the "Housing Cancellation Form" on the Porches website requesting release from housing Contract as a result of co-op or internship work or study-abroad semester.

If Student receives a co-op, internship or study-abroad term after moving into University housing, charges will be assessed as outlined in the Cancellation Fee Schedule section of this Contract.

Exceptions to the above-stated cancellation refund schedules may be made to comply with federal financial aid programs or for medical withdrawals.

LEAD-BASED PAINT DISCLOSURE

NOTE TO RESIDENTS: To fully comply with the Federal EPA regulations regarding communications about use of lead-based paint in residential facilities, the following information is provided to all residents of campus-owned and leased housing specifically Residents are asked to read Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home before signing your Housing Contract.

Lead Warning Statement: Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, lessees must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. Students can access this information at: http://www2.epa.gov/lead/protect-your-family-lead-your-home-real-estate-disclosure Lessee’s Disclosure: The University of Dayton has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in this leased housing. University has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in this leased housing.

12. Application Questions

GLLC QUESTIONS

Why Participate:
Why do you wish to be part of this particular learning and living community?

International Experience:
Identify any international experiences which make you a strong candidate for international and intercultural learning and living community housing. (Include any study abroad experiences, strong connections to a culture other than your own, knowledge of a foreign language, participation in international groups or clubs, etc.).

Campus Involvement:
What are your hobbies or co-curricular activities outside of the classroom you are involved in (examples: music, sports, clubs, etc)?

GOALS

GOALS: Please share one goal you have for your experience if selected to live in the Global Learning Living Community?

GLLC Retreat Agreement
I agree to attend the fall off-campus retreat in September, and the spring retreat in late January/early February. I will contact the Global LLC advisor at least one month in advance of the event if a potential conflict may prevent me from attending the event.

GLLC Programming Participation Agreement
I will actively participate in GLLC programming and events, attending at least two programs each semester (not inclusive of the retreat).

GLLC Participation Agreement
I have read and agree to the GLLC mission, goals and values. I understand that if I do not meet the obligations of the GLLC, I may be relocated from housing within the GLLC by the advisors for the GLLC and Housing and Residence Life.

Mini Course for GLLC Residents
"Journey towards Global Citizenship" is a unique, 1 credit course offered only to Global Learning Living Community residents in the fall semester. This opportunity allows residents to engage in deeper intercultural experiences, learning more about themselves, each other, and how they can contribute more fully to the Global Learning Living Community experience. Students registered for this course will have the opportunity to explore culture in an experiential format and with other GLLC peers.

This course will be tentatively offered for 8 weeks on Tuesday evenings, from 4:30 p.m.-6:30 p.m. between September 29 and November 17, 2016.

Being accepted to the GLLC is a prerequisite to being eligible to register for this mini-course. Space is limited.

I want to participate in the mini-course.

Housing Application: 2016-2017

Your application is not complete until you select the 'Confirm' button below. You will receive a confirmation email if the application is received successfully.

Thank you for your interest in Special Interest Housing. Through the Special Interest Housing initiative, communities in the North and South student neighborhoods and Caldwell apartments contribute invaluable service and philanthropic projects to their neighbors by providing educational programming, sponsoring community gatherings, and devoting time and energies to philanthropic projects. Your group’s efforts over the next year to enhance the student neighborhoods through similar initiatives will continue to enrich our educational environment and promote our Catholic and Marianist values.

Important Dates:
- January 25, 2016: Special Interest Housing application opens on myHousing Portal (https://myhousing.udayton.edu).
- February 5, 2016: Deadline by which the group leader must submit the proposal on behalf of the group applying for a house.
- February 12, 2016: Notifications are sent for Special Interest Housing application revisions.
- February 16, 2016: Application revisions are due in the myHousing Portal (https://myhousing.udayton.edu).
- March 1, 2016: Data by when groups will be informed of their status. Groups will either be awarded a house, be awarded a house conditionally, or not awarded a house.
