General Information

Group Leader Information

As the Group Leader, once you have created a group, share the group name and password with members so they may join your group. Once all members have joined, you will need to login again to verify the group members. Verification must be completed using the verification option at the bottom of this page, this step must be completed no later than February 5, 2016.

Group Member Information

Group members must contact their group leader (the student that created the group) to receive a group name and password. Once you have successfully added yourself to the group, your group leader will receive an email. (You cannot add yourself to a group until it has been initially created by the group leader.)

Group Members

You are not currently in a Roommate Group. You can search for a group to join using the links below.

11. Application Questions

(Step 7 of 8)

GLLC QUESTIONS

Why Participate:

Why do you wish to be part of this particular learning and living community?

International Experience:

Identify any international experiences which make you a strong candidate for international and intercultural learning and living community housing. (Include any study abroad experiences, strong connections to a culture other than your own, knowledge of a foreign language, participation in international groups or clubs, etc.).

Campus Involvement:

What are your hobbies or co-curricular activities outside of the classroom you are involved in (examples: music, sports, clubs, etc)?

GOALS

GOALS: Please share one goal you have for your experience if selected to live in the Global Learning Living Community?

GLLC Retreat Agreement

I agree to attend the fall off-campus retreat in September, and the spring retreat in late January/early February. I will contact the Global LLC advisor at least one month in advance of the event if a potential conflict may prevent me from attending the event.

GLLC Programming Participation Agreement

I will actively participate in GLLC programming and events, attending at least two programs each semester (not inclusive of the retreat).

GLLC Participation Agreement

I have read and agree to the GLLC mission, goals and values. I understand that if I do not meet the obligations of the GLLC, I may be relocated from housing within the GLLC by the advisers for the GLLC and Housing and Residence Life.

Mini Course for GLLC Residents

"Journey towards Global Citizenship" is a unique, 1 credit course offered only to Global Learning Living Community residents in the fall semester. This opportunity allows residents to engage in deeper intercultural experiences, learning more about themselves, each other, and how they can contribute more fully to the Global Learning Living Community experience. Students registered for this course will have the opportunity to explore culture in an experiential format and with other GLLC peers.

This course will be tentatively offered for 8 weeks on Tuesday evenings, from 4:30 p.m.-6:30 p.m. between September 29 and November 17, 2016.

Being accepted to the GLLC is a prerequisite to being eligible to register for this mini-course. Space is limited.

I want to participate in the mini-course

CONFIRM APPLICATION

12. Application Confirmation

(Step 8 of 8)

Housing Application : 2016-2017

Your application is not complete until you select the 'Confirm' button below. You will receive a confirmation email if the application is received successfully.

Thank you for your interest in Special Interest Housing. Through the Special Interest Housing initiative, communities in the North and South student neighborhoods and Caldwell apartments contribute invaluable service and philanthropic projects to their neighbors by providing educational programming, sponsoring community gatherings, and devoting time and energies to philanthropic projects. Your group's efforts over the next year to enhance the student neighborhoods through similar initiatives will continue to enrich our educational environment and promote our Catholic and Marianist values.

Important Dates:

- January 25, 2016: Special Interest Housing application opens on myHousing Portal (<https://myhousing.udayton.edu>).
- February 5, 2016: Deadline by which the group leader must submit the proposal on behalf of the group applying for a house.
- February 12, 2016: Notifications are sent for Special Interest Housing application revisions.
- February 16, 2016: Application revisions are due in the myHousing Portal (<https://myhousing.udayton.edu>).
- March 1, 2016: Date by when groups will be informed of their status. Groups will either be awarded a house, be awarded a house conditionally, or not awarded a house.

Please select 'confirm' below to complete your application. Your application is not complete (and thus not eligible for assignment) until you confirm your application is complete.
