

JOSEPH CINQUE AWARD

The UDSL Black Law Student Association annually presents the Joseph Cinque Award to a UDSL Alumni or other legal professional who has exhibited exemplary leadership, service, community involvement and mentorship to the Dayton community and young legal professionals.

KERMIT F. LOWERY

UDSL Class of 1984

Kermit F. Lowery is Vice President & Assistant General Counsel at LexisNexis. Prior to LexisNexis, he was an Assistant Judge Advocate in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps (JAG).

As the immediate past president and a current board member of the Greater Dayton Volunteer Lawyers Project, Lowery has spent countless years and hours providing legal services to the less fortunate, leading workshops and handling up to 20 pro bono cases per year.

Lowery is a member of the American Bar Association and First Vice President of the Dayton Bar Association. He is a graduate of Wright State University, class of 1980, with dual majors in Political Science and Communications, and from the University of Dayton School of Law, where he earned his J.D. in 1984.
