Financial Declaration

The University of Dayton and the United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) require that students who meet the academic requirements for admission and plan to enter the U.S. on F-1 (student) or J-1 (scholar/exchange visitor) visas provide proof of financial support before immigration documents (I-20 or IAP66) can be issued. Applicants must submit proof of the financial ability to cover tuition, fees and living expenses for the duration of your studies at the University of Dayton School of Law. If your spouse and/or child/children will accompany you to the United States, sufficient additional funds must be demonstrated.

While financial documents are not required to reach an admission decision, submitting them at the time of application expedites the visa process once an admission decision is reached.

All sources of support which you submit must be:

1. Originals, not photocopies;
2. Shown in U.S. dollars;
3. For the University of Dayton School of Law specifically and no other college or university;
4. No more than one year old; and,
5. Written in English.

In the box below, please enter the number that corresponds to the type of funding you will be receiving, and attach the appropriate official documentation as outlined below (all amounts should be in U.S. dollars).

Financial Declaration continued

1. If you will be funded by your parents or a relative, please submit:
 - A notarized or legalized letter of sponsorship which indicates that your sponsor is willing and able to support you financially and to pay for your academic fees and living expenses throughout the duration of your studies at the University of Dayton School of Law, and
 - A bank statement or credit reference from a bank stating the availability of the minimum estimated expenses. This document should be in English, and the sum should be indicated in U.S. dollars.
2. If you will be funded by your government, an organization, or a company, the sponsor must submit an official letter of sponsorship which states:
 - Your funding is valid for the University of Dayton School of Law specifically.
 - The expenses and the amount your sponsor will cover. (For example: academic fees, living expenses (how much the sponsor will cover), health insurance, financial support for family members, travel and other costs.)
 - The length of time your sponsor will support your law studies.
3. If you will be funded by a bank loan, you must submit an official letter of certification from the lending institution.
4. If you will be funded by a salary or study-leave allowance, you must submit an official letter from your employer validating this information.
5. If you will be funded in a manner not listed above (for example, if you will fund yourself), you must submit official documentation (a bank statement or a credit reference from a bank) clearly stating the amount of financial support to be provided and the length of time for which it will be available.

Please type the number of the funding option you will use to pay for your studies (1-5).
