

PERSPECTIVES ON FAITH AND LIFE
PRESENTS

FAITH, FAMILY AND MY FEMINISM:

WHAT WOMEN'S HUMAN RIGHTS MEAN TO ME

OCT. 11TH
VWK MAIN
6:30-8:30PM

PLEASE RSVP ON ORGSYNC

FEATURING DR. NATALIE HUDSON

For some, the notion of a Catholic Feminist may be an oxymoron. But for me, this identity is central to my vocation as a college professor, as a mother and as a women's rights activist. This talk will explore the complex intersections of feminism, faith and family from the perspective of human rights advocacy focused on the needs of women and girls.

PATH-POINT ELIGIBLE

Join Campus Ministry and Housing and Residence Life for a free dinner and discussion.