OVERVIEW

This report is published in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy as amended by the Campus Crime Statistics Act, the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, and the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. The report includes information regarding campus crime and fire statistics, campus policies, and resources for campus community members for the main campus in Dayton, Ohio and the University of Dayton China Institute in Suzhou, China.

The Department of Public Safety is charged with maintenance of statistics relative to the Campus Security and Fire Safety Report, annual report development and distribution of the report to the community, and submission of crime and fire statistics to the Department of Education. The Campus Security and Fire Safety Report is prepared in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies, Student Development, Facilities Management, Women's Center, the Office of Environmental Safety and Risk Management, the office of the Title IX Coordinator, and the Director of the University of Dayton China Institute. E-mail notification of the publication of the annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report is sent to faculty, staff and students no later than October 1 of each year.

The report is available on the University of Dayton Department of Public Safety web site:

https://www.udayton.edu/publicsafety/crime\_reporting/index.php

Additional printed copies are prepared for distribution and are available at the Office of Admissions (for prospective students), the Office of Human Resources (for prospective employees) and at the Department of Public Safety, located on the first floor of Fitz Hall (for the university community).

Questions regarding this report should be directed to the Department of Public Safety, attention: Director, Administration and Security.

LAW ENFORCEMENT ON CAMPUS

The University of Dayton Department of Public Safety is located on the first floor of Fitz Hall near the intersection of Brown and Stewart Streets.

The Department of Public Safety operates under the authority granted by the University of Dayton Board of Trustees and in accordance with Ohio Revised Code section 1713.50. Sworn personnel are commissioned as police officers (with arrest authority) in the State of Ohio and meet or exceed the basic training requirements of the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission. Police officers have jurisdictional authority on University of Dayton owned or controlled properties and on public and private properties within the campus boundaries defined in the Mutual Aid Agreement with the City of Dayton, and have the same legal authority as any other police officer in Ohio. Officers maintain a 24-hour patrol of the campus every day. Additional staff members work in Communications, Parking Services, and other support positions in the department.

The Department of Public Safety is also charged with enforcement of university regulations. The department works closely with and forwards citations for violations of these regulations to the Office of Community Standards and Civility (within Student Development) for adjudication.

The Department of Public Safety also maintains a close working relationship with the City of Dayton Police Department, the City of Oakwood Department of Public Safety, and other local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies. This includes a Mutual Aid Agreement with the City of Dayton Police Department and the City of Oakwood Department of Public Safety. The Department of Public Safety cooperates and assists with investigations involving university community members that are brought to its attention by other agencies, including offenses that occur outside the university boundaries.

CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITIES

Campus Security Authorities are designated based on their role in student life. They are individuals most likely to have ongoing close contact with students and whom students might contact for advice in the event a crime is committed.

Some are Campus Security Authorities by default due to their position within the University of Dayton. These include athletics staff (coaches), police officers, and Student Development staff with significant student interaction, to name a few.

Others are designated Campus Security Authorities due to some special relationship with students. For the most part, this includes student organization advisors, owing to the typically close relationship that develops between the advisor and organization members. Campus Security Authorities are identified each academic year and provided training regarding their responsibilities.

Campus pastoral counselors and professional counselors, when acting as such, are not considered to be campus security authorities and are not required to report crimes for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics. As a matter of policy they are encouraged, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform persons being counseled of the procedures to report crimes on a voluntary basis for inclusion in the annual crime statistics.

For purposes of Campus Security Authority responsibilities, pastoral counselors and professional counselors are defined as:

Pastoral Counselor

An employee of an institution who is associated with a religious order or denomination, recognized by that religious order or denomination as someone who provides confidential counseling and who is functioning within the scope of that recognition as a pastoral counselor.

Professional Counselor

An employee of an institution whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling to members of the institution's community and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification for such counseling.

Campus Security Authorities are required to report any crime reported to them to the Department of Public Safety. Crimes reported to Campus Safety Authorities and forwarded to the Department of Public Safety are included in the crime statistics for the Campus Security and Fire Safety Report. This policy is necessary so the university can comply with federal regulations regarding disclosure of campus crimes. Confidential reports that provide sufficient detailed information for classification of the offense, whether or not they include personally identifying information, will be included in the crime statistics and in timely notifications to the community.

REPORTING CRIMES

The Department of Public Safety encourages the community to report all criminal violations of federal, state or local laws to the University of Dayton Department of Public Safety dispatcher at (937) 229-2121 or in the case of an emergency to 911 from any campus telephone. The University of Dayton does not encourage anonymous reporting of crime. All incidents, including crimes, should be reported in a timely manner.

The use of cellular telephones to call 911 will connect the caller to the Montgomery County Regional Dispatch Center.

Information on where to report crimes or obtain services is also published in university rules and regulations including the Standards of Behavior (in the Student Handbook) and Policies and Procedures Handbook for Professional and Support Staff Employees.

CRIME LOG

The Department of Public Safety maintains a log of all crimes reported within the university area (see map on page 41). The crime log is available for public view at the Department of Public Safety business offices. The crime log for the most recent sixty days is available at any time during business hours (Monday through Friday from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM, except university holidays). Crime logs for periods older than sixty days are available during business hours and require two business days advance notification.

DISCLOSURE OF HEARING OUTCOMES

The University of Dayton will disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence, or a non-forcible sex offense, the results of any disciplinary hearing conducted by the university against the individual who is the alleged perpetrator of the crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, the University of Dayton will provide the results of such a disciplinary hearing to the victim's next of kin, if requested.

CITIZEN COMPLAINTS

The Department of Public Safety will investigate allegations of misconduct by members of the department. If a concern arises regarding the conduct of a member of the Department of Public Safety, complaint forms are available from the shift supervisor. Community members may request to speak to the shift supervisor by calling (937) 229-2121 and reporting the complaint to the dispatcher so that it is officially recorded. Information such as date, time and location of the service, name or description of the officer, and a full description of the dissatisfaction or inappropriate behavior are essential for the proper investigation of the complaint. The shift supervisor will assist in completing the form and forward it to the Director of Police Operations. If the complaint is against the shift supervisor, the complaint should be made directly to the Director of Police Operations on the next business day.

PHYSICAL SECURITY

Administrative and academic buildings are open during university business hours to faculty, staff, students, and visitors. Academic and administrative buildings are customarily locked after business hours, during weekends, and on holidays to prevent unauthorized entry.

Residence halls are required to be locked twenty four hours per day, with the exception of the lobby entrances, which are open daily from 7:00 AM to midnight while school is in session to permit visitors lobby access. Doors from the lobbies to residential areas are required to be locked twenty four hours per day to prevent unauthorized access. Apartment buildings are required to be locked twenty four hours per day. University owned houses are locked as required by residents.

The University of Dayton invests significantly in the security of the university environs. Physical security assessments are conducted with the goal of evaluating the appropriateness of current physical security measures and implementing additional measures as required. The Director, Administration and Security maintains responsibility for all physical security systems (access control, security alarms, and remote camera systems) to coordinate the university's security efforts.

Electronic access control has been installed on exterior and lobby wing doors of all traditional residence halls. The system will be installed on the exterior doors of other facilities as renovation projects are undertaken, with the exception of single unit houses and duplexes. Public Safety officers respond to open door alarms within academic and administrative buildings after business hours. Residence hall staff or Public Safety personnel respond to open door alarms at residential facilities.

Remote camera systems have been installed in common areas of academic, administrative, and residential facilities (including the seven traditional residence halls). These systems record data on a server for investigative follow-up. The cameras are not actively monitored but may be monitored as situations dictate. Additional servers and cameras will be installed in conjunction with building renovations or as the result of a physical security analysis.

EMERGENCY PHONES

Emergency phones that connect the caller with the Department of Public Safety are located strategically throughout the campus and residential student neighborhood. To use an emergency phone, press the red button. The Public Safety dispatcher will determine appropriate response requirements.

Emergency phones are installed at the following locations:

CH parking lot in the 200 block of Stonemill

South side of the Science Center adjacent to the Central Mall
East side of Kettering Engineering building
At the main entrance to campus, near the Visitor's Center
Along the walkway between St. Mary's and Albert-Emanuel Halls
Parking lot A near Alberta Street
Front of McGinnis Center
In parking lot B near the entrance
RP 2 parking lot near Brown Street & K Street
Near the intersection of Woodland Avenue and Alberta Street
At the rear of 38 Chambers Street
North side of Keller Hall, at the rear of the Garden Apartments
Northeast side of Miriam Hall
Stuart Athletic Fields
West side of St. Joseph Hall east of Reichard Hall
On the north side of Fitz Hall in S1 Lot
R-1 Lot
R-2 Lot
R-3 Lot
Old River Park
GE Aviation Electrical Power Lab parking lot

TIMELY WARNINGS

In the event of an incident, on or off campus, that constitutes an ongoing threat to the campus community, a timely warning in the form of a safety advisory will be issued as soon as reasonably practical. Timely warnings are issued by Public Safety via the campus email system to each current student, faculty, and staff member.

During calendar year 2014, three safety advisories were issued.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION

The emergency notification system is used to rapidly notify the campus community in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation imminently impacting the safety or security of the university area. Upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation, authorized personnel will activate the system without delay, transmitting a notification and directions for community members. The following steps will be followed:

- Confirm the presence of an emergency. Reports by responding officers or other university officials (i.e. Facilities Management, Environmental Safety and Risk Management) are the basis of this confirmation. The Department of Public Safety will coordinate this effort and determine the requirement for notification.
- Determine the content of the notification. The initial notification will provide information relative to evacuation from or avoidance of the impacted area. Follow-up information (if appropriate) will be provided in a timely warning message distributed to the community.
- The Department of Public Safety will initiate the notification immediately upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation, unless the notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist victims or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

- Students, staff, and faculty of the University of Dayton will be included in the notification.
- Any required notifications to the “larger community” (outside the University of Dayton area) will be coordinated by the Department of Public Safety and Media Relations.

The emergency notification system provides for multiple contact means for students, faculty, and staff, including:

- University telephone numbers
- Home telephone numbers
- Cellular telephone numbers
- E-mail
- SMS text message
- Parent telephone numbers

University-provided contact means are automatically included in this system. Students, staff, and faculty are encouraged to provide updated information for other contact means. Doing so will enhance notification ability.

During each semester, Public Safety will notify unsubscribed community members to join the personal module of the emergency notification system and update their personal contact information.

The emergency notification system is tested at least once each academic year. The Department of Public Safety will announce the schedule for the test, conduct the test, and provide instruction for including privately owned contact information in the system.

During calendar year 2014 the emergency notification system was not activated. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the emergency notification system, please contact Randy Groesbeck, Director, Administration and Security, at (937) 229-2129 or by e-mail at rgroesbeck1@udayton.edu.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION

The University of Dayton has prepared an Emergency Response Plan using an all-hazards approach based on the National Incident Management System (NIMS). The plan is tested at least once annually through drills and exercises, including annual evacuation drills of all high-density residential facilities, tabletop exercises, and training sessions. The plan is reviewed at least bi-annually.

STUDENT ESCORT SERVICE

Student security cadets provide free escorts in fully marked department vehicles. Escorts are available from 7:00 PM until 3:00 AM Thursday, Friday and Saturday and from 7:00 PM until 2:00 AM on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, from any point on campus or within the residential student neighborhood to any other point within these areas. The Student Escort Service can be reached during operating hours by calling (937) 229-2124.

CRIME PREVENTION

The Department of Public Safety provides important services to the community, but nothing we do can replace your actions in maintaining security and safety on campus. Take time to learn about crime prevention and safety — for yourself and your fellow community members. Information and awareness are your best weapons against crime and accidents. Some of the crime prevention services provided by Public Safety include:

- Crime prevention presentations to faculty, staff and students.
- Crime prevention training for residence hall staff.
- Security assessments of buildings and areas.
- Annual campus lighting and safety survey in partnership with Environmental Safety, Facilities Management, Residence Life and Student Government to improve security.
- Crime Prevention publications are available free of charge.
- Public Safety will engrave personal property free of charge.
- Bicycle registration aids in identifying ownership of bicycles in the event of a loss. The registration form may be printed from the Public Safety web site and the completed form turned in to Parking Services. Bicycle registration is free.
- Public Safety collects used cellular telephones to be provided to victims of domestic violence by Artemis House.

Crime prevention requires active, cooperative efforts between the Department of Public Safety and the university community. Personal security and the protection of home and community are all within the scope of crime prevention efforts. We encourage all community members to consider their personal safety and the security of their residence, study, and working facilities at all times. Any security or crime prevention concerns should be reported immediately to the Department of Public Safety.

MISSING PERSONS

All reports of missing persons are taken seriously and investigated fully until the person is located. Any student missing for 24 or more hours (or earlier if circumstances warrant) should be reported to the Department of Public Safety immediately, with as much detail as possible. Investigation of missing persons is a coordinated effort between Student Development and Public Safety, using both university and law enforcement means to determine the location and well-being of the missing person.

- Public Safety will lead the missing person investigation. Any university employee made aware of a missing student should immediately notify the Department of Public Safety.
- The missing person's name and identifying information will be entered into law enforcement databases to alert other law enforcement agencies.
- Local law enforcement agencies including but not limited to the Dayton Police Department will be notified that the student is missing, regardless of whether the student has registered a contact person (see below).

- Parents or guardians will be notified if the missing student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated. In exigent circumstances, parents may be contacted to aid in determining the location of a missing student.
- Public Safety will conduct a thorough investigation to determine the location of the missing student. This may include interviews with known acquaintances, family members, instructors, residence hall staff, and others who may individually or collectively aid in the investigation.

Students may name a confidential contact person to be contacted in the event they are reported missing. This person may be anyone of their choosing. Students wishing to register a contact person may do so by contacting the Director of Administration and Security at Public Safety (937) 229-2129 or by e-mail to rgroesbeck1@udayton.edu. Information submitted for contact persons is confidential and may only be accessed by law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation.

DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

The University of Dayton has developed programs to prevent the illicit use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol by students and employees. Information materials, counseling services, education programs, and disciplinary actions are all elements of these programs and are available through Student Development (Residence Life, Counseling Center, Health Center, Community Wellness, and Community Standards and Civility) and Human Resources.

Federal and State of Ohio laws prohibit the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use, or possession of any controlled substance.

State of Ohio law prohibits individuals less than 21 years of age from possessing or consuming alcoholic beverages, and prohibits others from distributing or selling alcoholic beverages to individuals less than 21 years of age. Additionally, City of Dayton ordinances and University of Dayton regulations govern consumption of alcohol in public places and on university property.

University policy prohibits the illegal use or distribution of alcohol or drugs in or on any property owned or controlled by the university.

These laws and regulations are enforced by the Department of Public Safety and university officials. Violators are subject to criminal prosecution and/or administrative sanctions or disciplinary action.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The University of Dayton does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs; sexual harassment and sexual violence are types of sex discrimination. Other acts can also be forms of sex-based discrimination and are also prohibited, including dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. As a result, the University of Dayton issues this statement of policy to inform the community of its comprehensive plan addressing sexual misconduct, educational programs, and procedures to handle reporting and complaints of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, whether the incident occurs on or off campus. In this context, the University of Dayton prohibits the offenses of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and reaffirms its commitment to maintain a campus environment emphasizing the dignity and worth of all members of the university community.

For a complete copy of the University of Dayton's Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy, visit go.udayton.edu/nondiscrimination.

DEFINITIONS

Consent is not specifically defined in the State of Ohio criminal code; instead sexual offense codes list force or threat of force, impairment of judgment through the introduction of drugs, intoxicants, and controlled substances, impairment of the victim as the result of mental or physical condition, and age as conditions under which a sexual assault is perpetrated. The University of Dayton defines consent in its Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy. The definition for this policy is provided below.

Effective consent is granted when a person freely, actively and knowingly agrees at the time to participate in a particular sexual act with a particular person. Effective consent exists when mutually understandable words and/or actions demonstrate a willingness to participate in mutually agreed-upon activity at every stage of that sexual activity. Effective consent has time boundaries. Consent at one time does not imply consent at any other time. The existence of a dating/romantic relationship between the persons involved or the fact of a previous sexual relationship does not automatically establish effective consent for future sexual activity. There is no consent when agreement is only inferred from a person's silence or lack of resistance; there is threat of physical force, harm or intimidation; or there is coercion.

There is no consent when the person is under the age of 16. There is no consent when someone engaging in sexual behavior knew or should have known that the other person was incapacitated. Regardless of the state of the accused, the University will use the perspective of a "sober and reasonable person" in determining whether one should have known about the impact of the use of alcohol, drugs, mental illness, etc. on another's ability to give consent. Because incapacitation may be difficult to discern, the person seeking the sexual behavior is strongly encouraged to err on the side of caution; i.e., when in doubt, assume the other person is incapacitated and therefore unable to give effective consent.

Coercion exists when a person engages in threats, sexual pressuring or oppressive behavior that violates the University community's expectation of respect for the dignity of another person by causing another person to engage in unwanted sexual activity. Real or perceived power differentials between the individuals involved may create an atmosphere of coercion. (Coercion can be differentiated from seduction by a repetition of the coercive activity in the face of resistance, the degree of pressure applied or the initiator's knowledge that the pressure is unwanted.)

Incapacitation exists when a person is unaware, blacked out, unconscious, unable to make rational/reasonable decisions and/or otherwise physically or mentally helpless to give effective consent. Indicators of incapacitation include but are not limited to outrageous/unusual behavior, inability or diminished ability to accurately discern his or her environment (who, what, where, when and/or how), slurred speech, vomiting, severe intoxication, loss of voluntary motor skills, loss of involuntary motor skills, disjointed speech patterns (unable to follow a conversation or verbalize complete thoughts), and/or sleepiness that demonstrates an inability to control one's ability to stay awake.

“Sexual Harassment” is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, which can include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Thus, sexual harassment prohibited by Title IX can include conduct such as touching of a sexual nature; making sexual comments, jokes, or gestures; writing graffiti or displaying or distributing sexually explicit drawings, pictures, or written materials; calling students sexually charged names; spreading sexual rumors; rating students on sexual activity or performance; or circulating, showing, or creating e-mails or web sites of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment may also involve coercion, such as threats, sexual pressuring, or oppressive behavior that violates the University community's expectation of respect for the dignity of another person by causing another person to engage in unwanted sexual activity. Real or perceived power differentials between the individuals involved may create an atmosphere of coercion.

“Sexual Misconduct” is a form of sexual harassment. Sexual misconduct refers to physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to the victim's age (i.e., under 16 years of age) or use of drugs or alcohol. An individual also may be unable to give consent due to an intellectual or other disability. A number of different acts fall into the category of sexual misconduct including rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion.

Sexual Assault. For purposes of this report, sexual assault means an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting system. A sex offense is any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.

Rape is defined as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.

Fondling is defined as the touching of the private parts of another person for the purposes of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

Incest is defined as nonforcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

Statutory Rape is defined as nonforcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

The State of Ohio Revised Code (ORC) provides definitions of sexual offenses that differ somewhat from those of the FBI. When a sex offense occurs and the perpetrator is referred to criminal court, they are normally charged under the provisions of the Ohio Revised Code. Those codes are listed below.

2907.02 Rape.

No person shall engage in sexual conduct with another who is not the spouse of the offender or who is the spouse of the offender but is living separate and apart from the offender, when any of the following applies:

For the purpose of preventing resistance, the offender substantially impairs the other person's judgment or control by administering any drug, intoxicant, or controlled substance to the other person surreptitiously or by force, threat of force, or deception.

The other person is less than thirteen years of age, whether or not the offender knows the age of the other person.

The other person's ability to resist or consent is substantially impaired because of a mental or physical condition or because of advanced age, and the offender knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the other person's ability to resist or consent is substantially impaired because of a mental or physical condition or because of advanced age.

No person shall engage in sexual conduct with another when the offender purposely compels the other person to submit by force or threat of force.

2907.03 Sexual battery.

No person shall engage in sexual conduct with another, not the spouse of the offender, when any of the following apply:

The offender knowingly coerces the other person to submit by any means that would prevent resistance by a person of ordinary resolution.

The offender knows that the other person's ability to appraise the nature of or control the other person's own conduct is substantially impaired.

The offender knows that the other person submits because the other person is unaware that the act is being committed.

The offender knows that the other person submits because the other person mistakenly identifies the offender as the other person's spouse.

The offender is the other person's natural or adoptive parent, or a stepparent, or guardian, custodian, or person in loco parentis of the other person.

The other person is in custody of law or a patient in a hospital or other institution, and the offender has supervisory or disciplinary authority over the other person.

The offender is a teacher, administrator, coach, or other person in authority employed by or serving in a school for which the state board of education prescribes minimum standards pursuant to division (D) of section 3301.07 of the Revised Code, the other person is enrolled in or attends that school, and the offender is not enrolled in and does not attend that school.

The other person is a minor, the offender is a teacher, administrator, coach, or other person in authority employed by or serving in an institution of higher education, and the other person is enrolled in or attends that institution.

The other person is a minor, and the offender is the other person's athletic or other type of coach, is the other person's instructor, is the leader of a scouting troop of which the other person is a member, or is a person with temporary or occasional disciplinary control over the other person.

The offender is a mental health professional, the other person is a mental health client or patient of the offender, and the offender induces the other person to submit by falsely representing to the other person that the sexual conduct is necessary for mental health treatment purposes.

The other person is confined in a detention facility, and the offender is an employee of that detention facility.

The other person is a minor, the offender is a cleric, and the other person is a member of, or attends, the church or congregation served by the cleric.

The other person is a minor, the offender is a peace officer, and the offender is more than two years older than the other person.

2907.04 Unlawful sexual conduct with minor.

No person who is eighteen years of age or older shall engage in sexual conduct with another, who is not the spouse of the offender, when the offender knows the other person is thirteen years of age or older but less than sixteen years of age, or the offender is reckless in that regard.

2907.05 Gross sexual imposition.

No person shall have sexual contact with another, not the spouse of the offender; cause another, not the spouse of the offender, to have sexual contact with the offender; or cause two or more other persons to have sexual contact when any of the following applies:

The offender purposely compels the other person, or one of the other persons, to submit by force or threat of force.

For the purpose of preventing resistance, the offender substantially impairs the judgment or control of the other person or of one of the other persons by administering any drug, intoxicant, or controlled substance to the other person surreptitiously or by force, threat of force, or deception.

The offender knows that the judgment or control of the other person or of one of the other persons is substantially impaired as a result of the influence of any drug or intoxicant administered to the other person with the other person's consent for the purpose of any kind of medical or dental examination, treatment, or surgery.

The other person, or one of the other persons, is less than thirteen years of age, whether or not the offender knows the age of that person.

The ability of the other person to resist or consent or the ability of one of the other persons to resist or consent is substantially impaired because of a mental or physical condition or because of advanced age, and the offender knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the ability to resist or consent of the other person or of one of the other persons is substantially impaired because of a mental or physical condition or because of advanced age.

No person shall knowingly touch the genitalia of another, when the touching is not through clothing, the other person is less than twelve years of age, whether or not the offender knows the age of that person, and the touching is done with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person.

2907.06 Sexual imposition.

No person shall have sexual contact with another, not the spouse of the offender; cause another, not the spouse of the offender, to have sexual contact with the offender; or cause two or more other persons to have sexual contact when any of the following applies:

The offender knows that the sexual contact is offensive to the other person, or one of the other persons, or is reckless in that regard.

The offender knows that the other person's, or one of the other person's, ability to appraise the nature of or control the offender's or touching person's conduct is substantially impaired.

The offender knows that the other person, or one of the other persons, submits because of being unaware of the sexual contact.

The other person, or one of the other persons, is thirteen years of age or older but less than sixteen years of age, whether or not the offender knows the age of such person, and the offender is at least eighteen years of age and four or more years older than such other person.

The offender is a mental health professional, the other person or one of the other persons is a mental health client or patient of the offender, and the offender induces the other person who is the client or patient to submit by falsely representing to the other person who is the client or patient that the sexual contact is necessary for mental health treatment purposes.

Domestic Violence: The term “domestic violence” means felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed:

By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;

By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;

By a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;

By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or

By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

For the purposes of complying with the requirements of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

In addition, the State of Ohio ORC defines domestic violence as follows:

2919.25 Domestic violence.

No person shall knowingly cause or attempt to cause physical harm to a family or household member.

No person shall recklessly cause serious physical harm to a family or household member.

No person, by threat of force, shall knowingly cause a family or household member to believe that the offender will cause imminent physical harm to the family or household member.

Dating Violence: The term “dating violence” means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be based on the reporting party’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

For the purposes of this definition:

Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.

Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

In the State of Ohio, there is no specific dating violence criminal code. Offenders will be charged using the appropriate criminal code based on the offense.

Stalking: The term “stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress. For the purposes of this definition:

Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person’s property.

Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Reasonable persons means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

Any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting. The State of Ohio O.R.C. defines stalking as follows:

2903.211 Menacing by stalking.

No person by engaging in a pattern of conduct shall knowingly cause another person to believe that the offender will cause physical harm to the other person or cause mental distress to the other person. In addition to any other basis for the other person's belief that the offender will cause physical harm to the other person or the other person's mental distress, the other person's belief or mental distress may be based on words or conduct of the offender that are directed at or identify a corporation, association, or other organization that employs the other person or to which the other person belongs.

No person, through the use of any electronic method of remotely transferring information, including, but not limited to, any computer, computer network, computer program, or computer system, shall post a message with purpose to urge or incite another to commit a violation of this section.

No person, with a sexual motivation, shall violate this section.

EDUCATION AND PREVENTION PROGRAMS

The University engages in comprehensive, intentional, and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns intended to end dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking that:

- Are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research, or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome; and
- Consider environmental risk and protective factors as they occur on the individual, relationship, institutional, community and societal levels.

Educational programming consists of primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees and ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns for students and employees that:

- Identifies domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as prohibited conduct;
- Defines using definitions provided both by the Department of Education as well as state law what behavior constitutes domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking;
- Defines what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity in the State of Ohio and/or using the definition of consent found in the Student Handbook if state law differs from the definitions used on campus to address University policy violations;
- Provides a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention. Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene;
- Information on risk reduction. Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.
- Provides an overview of information contained in the Annual Security Report in compliance with the Clery Act.

The University of Dayton has developed an annual educational campaign consisting of presentations that include distribution of educational materials to new students; and participating in and presenting information and materials during new employee orientation. The below abbreviations are used to define prohibited behaviors covered during training sessions.

DoV = Domestic Violence
 DaV = Dating Violence

PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING A COMPLAINT

This document will use “victim” and “complainant” and “perpetrator” and “accused party” interchangeably.

The University of Dayton has procedures in place that are sensitive to those who report sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. These procedures include informing individuals about their right to file criminal charges as well as the availability of counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance and other services on and/or off campus, as well as additional remedies to prevent contact between a complainant and an accused party, such as housing, academic, transportation and working accommodations, if reasonably available and appropriate. The University will make such accommodations if the victim requests them and if they are reasonable available and effective in remedying an issue, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to the Public Safety or local law enforcement. Any issues should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator, who also serves as the Equity Compliance Officer; that person can assist in establishing any appropriate interim measures.

After an incident of sexual assault and/or domestic violence, the victim should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible. These services are available at area hospitals. In the State of Ohio, all hospitals offering emergency room services are required to have a physician, physician assistant, clinical nurse specialist, certified nurse practitioner, or certified nurse-midwife on call twenty-four hours each day for the examination of sexual assault victims. Hospitals close to the University of Dayton which offer these services include Miami Valley Hospital and Kettering Medical Center, which have a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner on call at all times and can collect physical evidence.

Under the Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005, starting in 2009, states must certify that they do not “require a victim of sexual assault to participate in the criminal justice system or cooperate with law enforcement in order to be provided with a forensic medical exam, reimbursement for charges incurred on account of such an exam, or both.” 42 U.S.C. § 3796gg-4(d). In Ohio, evidence may be collected even if the victim chooses not to make a report to law enforcement.

It is important that a victim of sexual assault not bathe, douche, smoke, change clothing, or clean the bed/linen/area where they were assaulted if the offense occurred within the past 96 hours to preserve evidence. Preserving evidence may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred, or may be helpful in obtaining a protection order. In circumstances of sexual assault, if victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted disease. Victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, and dating violence are encouraged to also preserve evidence by saving text messages, instant messages, social networking pages, other communications, and keeping pictures, logs or other copies of documents, if they have any, that would be useful to university officials and/or police.

As time passes, evidence may dissipate or become lost or unavailable, thereby making investigation, possible prosecution, disciplinary proceedings, or obtaining protection from abuse orders related to the incident more difficult. If a victim chooses not to make a complaint regarding an incident, he or she nevertheless should consider speaking with Public Safety or other law enforcement to preserve evidence in the event that the victim changes her/his mind at a later date.

We encourage all victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking to report the violation immediately to the Department of Public Safety by calling 937-229-2121 (911 from a university phone), or in person at Public Safety offices, located on the first floor, Fitz Hall. However, it is the victim’s choice whether or not to make such a report and victims have the right to decline involvement with the police. The University of Dayton will assist any victim with notifying local police if they so desire. The City of Dayton Police Department may also be reached directly by calling 911 or 937-333-2677, in person at 335 West Third Street, Dayton, OH.

Additional information about the City of Dayton Police Department may be found online at: www.cityofdayton.org/departments/police.

If you have been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, you should also report the incident promptly to the University's Title IX Coordinator (see below).

TITLE IX

Pursuant to Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 to the 1964 Civil Rights Act:

“No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

Title IX is intended to create equity between the genders in educational programs and activities. Its protections are available to both men and women.

Because a number of high profile Title IX cases have involved athletics and because many initial efforts under Title IX focused on the “equity among genders in sports” element of Title IX, a common misperception exists that this law applies only to athletics. In reality, Title IX prohibits sex discrimination in employment and in virtually all university programs and activities, including, but not limited to, admissions, athletics, financial aid, and educational programs.

Reporting Possible Title IX Violations

The University of Dayton has designated the following persons to address inquiries regarding Title IX compliance.

Title IX/Section 504 Coordinator & Equity Compliance Officer (abbreviated as “Title IX Coordinator”)

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the university's compliance with Title IX and its Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy in general. His responsibilities include overseeing all Title IX complaints and identifying and addressing any patterns or systemic problems that arise during the review of such complaints. His contact information is listed below.

David J. Sipusic, J.D.
Title IX/Section 504 Coordinator
St. Mary's Hall Room 300
300 College Park
Dayton, OH 45469-1641
937-229-3615
dsipusic1@udayton.edu

The Title IX Coordinator and individuals designated as Deputy Coordinators are considered “Responsible Employees” under Title IX and also “Campus Security Authorities” under the Clery

Act. The Title IX Coordinator will provide statistical information (less the victims' identifying information) to Public Safety for inclusion in the annual crime statistics even if the victim chooses not to alert Public Safety personally.

If you have a question or concern about Title IX, and/or wish to file a complaint of non-compliance, you may contact the Title IX Coordinator or one of the designated Deputy Coordinators. If you have a Title IX complaint against a University of Dayton visitor, or any general complaint, please contact the Title IX Coordinator. If you have a complaint relating to gender equity in athletics or against a student, a staff member, or a faculty member and for any reason feel uncomfortable about initiating a complaint with the designated Deputy Coordinator, please feel free to contact the Title IX Coordinator directly. For any questions or complaints regarding Title IX, you may also go to the University's Nondiscrimination Resource Center, which is available at go.udayton.edu/nondiscrimination or via a link in the footer of any University of Dayton webpage.

The University will provide resources, on campus, off campus or both, for persons who have been victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and will apply appropriate disciplinary procedures to those who violate these policies. The procedures set forth below are intended to afford a prompt response to charges of sexual assault, domestic or dating violence, and stalking, to maintain confidentiality and fairness consistent with applicable legal requirements, and to impose appropriate sanctions on violators of this policy.

INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

If a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking is reported, the below are the procedures that the University will follow, as well as a statement of the standard of evidence that will be used during any judicial hearing on campus arising from such a report:

Sexual Assault

1. Depending on when reported (immediate vs delayed report), provide complainant with access to medical care.
2. Assess immediate safety needs of victim.

3. Assist victim with contacting local police if victim requests and provide victim contact information for local police department.
4. Provide victim with referrals to on and off campus mental health providers.
5. Assess need to implement interim or long-term protective measures, such as housing changes, change in class schedule, and “no contact” directive between both parties.
6. Provide a “no trespass” directive to accused party if deemed appropriate.
7. Provide written instructions on how to apply for protective order.
8. Provide a copy of the sexual misconduct policy to the victim and inform the victim regarding timeframes for inquiry, investigation and resolution.
9. Inform the parties of the outcome of the investigation, whether or not the accused will be administratively charged and what the outcome of the hearing is.
10. Enforce the Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy and take immediate and separate action against parties that retaliate against a person for complaining of sex-based discrimination or for assisting in the investigation.

Stalking, Dating Violence, and Domestic Violence.

1. Assess immediate safety needs of the victim.
2. Assist victims with contacting local police if the victim requests and provide the victim with contact information for local police department.
3. Provide written instructions on how to apply for a protective order.
4. Provide written information to the victim on how to preserve evidence.
5. Assess need to implement short or long-term protective measures, if appropriate.
6. Provide a “no trespass” and/or “no contact” directive to the accused party, if appropriate.

Regardless of whether a victim elects to pursue a criminal complaint or whether the offense is alleged to have occurred on or off campus, the university will assist victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and will provide each victim with a written explanation of their rights and options. In Ohio, a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking has the following rights. This information was obtained from the Ohio Victim Witness Association, of which the Montgomery County Prosecutor’s Victim Witness Division is an active member:

Summary of Ohio's Crime Victims Rights Law

*****

Notices to victims may be oral or written [.03A].

It is the responsibility of the victim to keep their address or phone contact current with authorities [.03C, .16A].

A judge may limit any of these rights if the victim is an inmate [.19E].

Responsibility for Compliance

Prosecutors must seek compliance with victims' rights [.19A], but failure of any right does not change results [.06A and .19C] or allow for damage claims by victims [.19B].

Required Notices to Victims

Law enforcement and prosecutors must promptly give certain information included in the Picking Up The Pieces pamphlet prepared by the Attorney General, including available victim's rights, assistance, victim's compensation, and protective order information [.04A]. Law enforcement must provide contact information of investigator and prosecutor, notice of an arrest, name of defendant or alleged juvenile offender, eligibility for accused pre-trial release, the victim's right to know if the accused has been arrested or released and to know of the right to be free from intimidation [.05A].

Prosecutors must, "to the extent practicable," confer with the victim or designated representative before a plea bargain, amendment, dismissal, or trial. Judges must note on the record any known time a prosecutor fails to confer and the prosecutor's reason [.06A].

If the Juvenile Court amends, dismisses, grants diversion, or has an adjudicatory hearing on a case prior to the Prosecutor's involvement, the Court "shall notify the victim" of the action the court will take[.06A].

A Court shall not dismiss charges or juvenile complaints solely at the request of the victim and over the objections of the Prosecutor.

Prosecutors (or designee [.06B]) also must, to the extent practicable, inform victims of the name of the accused, charge, case number, procedural steps, victim's right to attend all proceedings, summary of rights, intimidation response procedures, person and phone contact, need to request notices and the right to select a representative to receive these notices on the victim's behalf [.06B], and notify all victims of misdemeanor crimes of their right to make an oral or written victim impact statement [.06E].

Required Notices If a Victim Requests

The Prosecutor, or Court if it is a delinquency hearing without a Prosecutor, must notify the victim of:

1) All court proceedings and changes to those proceedings or to the schedule in the case, including date, time, and location [.06C];

2) Acquittal or conviction [.12].

If convicted, then notified of:

A) crimes convicted of [.12A]

B) phone number and address of probation office or person preparing pre-sentence investigation (PSI) [.12B]

C) right of the victim to make a statement as part of the PSI. Judge may show the victim's statement to the defendant [.12C].

D) the date, time, and place of sentencing [.12E], and the right to speak at sentencing [.12D];

E) the sentence and any change of the sentence [.12F];

3) An appeal being filed and information on [.15A]:

A) the appeal process [.15A];

B) the release of defendant [.15A2];

C) time and place of appeal [.15A3]; &

D) results of the appeal [.15A4], and;

Victims who requested any other notifications, must also be notified of:

A) incarceration of the accused or any commitment of the juvenile;

B) the likely release date;

C) the contact information of the custodial agency and its victim services

D) Automatic notices of any actions the release authority takes and all judicial release or sentence modification hearings [16 A,B,C] (see below for state required notices)

Revoking Bond or Release

If a defendant or an alleged juvenile offender is released on bond or personal recognizance, and the victim or victim's family has been harmed or threatened, then the victim may request the prosecutor to motion for the court to reconsider bond or release conditions [.05B].

Confidentiality

1) Prosecutor may motion for the court to suppress victim or victim representative identifying information if there are reasonable grounds to fear from threats or violence. The "court shall hold" the recorded hearing in chambers [.07A].

2) The court may suppress victim information from files, except when determining the location of the crime or delinquent act, and seal the transcript of the hearing [.07B].

Speedy Prosecutions

If practical, the prosecutor must inform each victim who requested notices of any possible delays, and if the victim objects, the prosecutor must inform the judge and the judge must consider the victims' concerns before approving delays [.08].

Be Present

Victims may attend any hearing the defendant or alleged juvenile offender is present (except Grand Jury), unless the judge rules exclusion of the victim or victim representative is necessary to guarantee a fair trial or proceeding [.09].

Support Person

At a victim's request, the judge must permit a support person to accompany the victim unless the judge rules this will cause an unfair trial or delinquency proceeding [.09].

Separate Waiting Area

The court must attempt to minimize unwanted contacts between victims and the accused [.10A]. The court must attempt to provide a separate victim waiting area from the accused [.10B].

Property Return

Law enforcement must promptly return property to the victim unless it is contraband, ownership is disputed, prosecutor certifies it must be kept instead of photographed or the judge promptly rules evidentiary value to defendant or alleged juvenile offender is greater than the victims need for the property [.11].

Victim Impact Statement

Victims may make a written or oral statement for the victims section of any Disposition Information Report (DIP) or Pre (or Post) -Sentence Investigation (PSI) that a judge orders. The victim's statement must be included as part of a Victim Impact Statement, and if requested by the victim, the victim's written statement must be included in the DIP or PSI [.13A].

Victim Impact Statements may include physical, psychological, and emotional harm, property damage or economic losses, restitution needs, and the victim's opinion on sentencing / disposition [.13C].

Before sentencing of an adult in all felony [.01(A)1] and misdemeanor [.06E] crimes, or disposition of an alleged juvenile offender, the judge must permit a statement from the victim.

The judge may give a copy of any written statement to defendant or juvenile and their attorney, and give the victim and prosecutor any written statement by the offender or juvenile.

The judge may redact irrelevant information. Written statements are not public record, and must be returned to the court immediately after the hearing. New information may require a response from the defendant or juvenile [.14A and .14B].

Before a release hearing from prison or Dept. of Youth Services (DYS), the judge must permit and consider a victim's statement and, if statement is written, a copy given the defendant or juvenile, DYS or adult parole authority [.17A & .17B].

Release and Hearing Notices

Victims are provided automatic notifications (oral or written) in violent felony levels 1-3 and life imprisonment for release and discharge reviews, with an “opt out” choice [.03, .06]. In the juvenile system, victims of felony levels 4-5 must “opt in.” Victims may request notices. Notices are to be provided 60 days prior to following events:

- 1) Adult system: Victims notified of judicial release hearing and results by the prosecutor;*
- 2) Juvenile system: Victims notified of judicial release hearings by the prosecutor and of the results by the juvenile court;*
- 3) Recommendation for pardon or commutation, parole hearing, or transition to post release control, including the victim’s rights and the process to be heard [.16C,D] and notice of right to having a victim conference [.16E] – notice by Department of Corrections*

Automatic notices may end after victims do not respond 3 times and records of notice attempts must be kept and are not public.

Notices are done promptly when inmate is released to visit a dying relative or for a funeral, escaped or absent and recaptured [.16C4], and defendant dies [.16C5].

With the above notices, the victim must be informed of the right to submit a victim impact statement [.16A,B,C] and attend hearings [.16C].

Employee Protections

Employers cannot punish victims for preparing for or attending hearings at the prosecutor’s request or by subpoena. Violation is contempt of court [.18].

Prepared by David Voth, Executive Director of Crime Victim Services (Allen and Putnam Counties, Ohio, 419-222-8666); Author: Quality Victim Advocacy: A Field Guide. Not to be used as legal advice.

Further, the University of Dayton complies with Ohio law in recognizing protection orders. Any person who obtains an order of protection from a court in Ohio should provide a copy to Public Safety and the Office of the Title IX/Section 504 Coordinator. The victim may then meet with the Title IX Coordinator, Residence Life, and Public Safety to develop a safety action plan, which is a plan developed for the victim to reduce risk of harm while on campus or coming and going from campus. This plan may include, but is not limited to: escorts, special parking arrangements, providing a temporary cellphone, changing classroom location or allowing a student to complete assignments from home, etc. The University cannot apply for a legal order of protection, no contact order, or restraining order for a victim from the local jurisdiction(s). The victim is required to apply directly for these services through the courts.

The University of Dayton may issue an institutional no contact order if deemed appropriate and/or at the request of the victim or accused. To the extent of the victim’s cooperation and consent, University offices will work cooperatively to ensure that the complainant's health, physical safety, work and academic status are protected, pending the outcome of a formal University investigation of the complaint. For example, if reasonably available, a complainant may be offered changes to academic, living, or working situations in addition to counseling, health services, visa and immigration assistance and assistance in notifying appropriate local law enforcement. Additionally, personal identifiable information about the victim will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons with a specific need to know who are investigating/adjudicating the complaint or delivering resources or support services to the complainant (for example, publicly available record-keeping for purposes of Clery Act reporting and disclosures will be made without inclusion of identifying information about the victim, as defined in 42 USC 1395 (a)(20)).

The University of Dayton will maintain as confidential any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

The University does not publish the name of crime victims nor house identifiable information regarding victims in Public Safety’s Daily Crime Log or online.

The Montgomery County Prosecutor’s Victim/Witness Division has trained advocates available to assist victims of sexual violence. Many victims are unsure about who to tell and may be struggling with medical and legal decisions. Students may contact the 24-hour sexual assault crisis line (937-225-5623) anonymously to discuss any matters related to sexual violence. Advocates can provide crisis intervention, support during the forensic medical exam, information regarding the criminal justice system, and other supportive services and referrals.

How to be an Active Bystander

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it. We want to promote a culture of community accountability where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help.

The University of Dayton encourages its community members to be active bystanders and to take part in the Green Dot initiative. The Green Dot program encourages choices, behaviors, and attitudes that promote safety for everyone and make the community safer. There are many such behaviors, including awareness, education, and intervention skills, but bystander intervention is a key component of violence prevention. The Green Dot program sends a positive message that violence is not tolerated in our community. Further information regarding bystander intervention may be found at the Dean of Students’ website, www.udayton.edu/studev/dean/greendot.php.

Listed below are some ways to be an active bystander. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another and it is not safe for you to interrupt.

- Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.

- Confront people who seclude, hit on, and try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
- Speak up when someone discusses plans to take sexual advantage of another person.
- Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
- Refer people to on or off campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling, or with legal assistance.

Risk Reduction

With no intent of victim blame and recognizing that only rapists are responsible for rape, the following are some strategies to reduce one's risk of sexual assault or harassment (taken from Rape, Abuse, & Incest National Network, www.rainn.org).

- Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way to get out of a bad situation.
- Try to avoid isolated areas. It is more difficult to get help if no one is around.
- Walk with purpose. Even if you don't know where you are going, act like you do.
- Trust your instincts. If a situation or location feels unsafe or uncomfortable, it probably isn't the best place to be.
- Try not to load yourself down with packages or bags as this can make you appear more vulnerable.
- Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged and that you have cash money.
- Don't allow yourself to be isolated with someone you don't trust or someone you don't know.
- Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so that you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.
- When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way out of a bad situation.
- Trust your instincts. If you feel unsafe in any situation, go with your gut. If you see something suspicious, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.).
- Don't leave your drink unattended while talking, dancing, using the restroom, or making a phone call. If you've left your drink alone, just get a new one.
- Don't accept drinks from people you don't know or trust. If you choose to accept a drink, go with the person to the bar to order it, watch it being poured, and carry it yourself. At parties, don't drink from the punch bowls or other large, common open containers.
- Watch out for your friends, and vice versa. If a friend seems out of it, is way too intoxicated for the amount of alcohol they've had, or is acting out of character, get him or her to a safe place immediately.
- If you suspect you or a friend has been drugged, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.). Be explicit with doctors so they can give you the correct tests (you will need a urine test and possibly others).
- If you need to get out of an uncomfortable or scary situation here are some things that you can try:

- Remember that being in this situation is not your fault. You did not do anything wrong, it is the person who is making you uncomfortable that is to blame.
- Be true to yourself. Don't feel obligated to do anything you don't want to do. "I don't want to" is always a good enough reason. Do what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.
- Have a code word with your friends or family so that if you don't feel comfortable you can call them and communicate your discomfort without the person you are with knowing. Your friends or family can then come to get you or make up an excuse for you to leave.
- Lie. If you don't want to hurt the person's feelings it is better to make up a reason to leave than to stay and be uncomfortable, scared, or worse. Some excuses you could use are: needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, having somewhere else that you need to be, etc.
- Try to think of an escape route. How would you try to get out of the room? Where are the doors? Windows? Are there people around who might be able to help you? Is there an emergency phone nearby?
- If you and/or the other person have been drinking, you can say that you would rather wait until you both have your full judgment before doing anything you may regret later.

In addition to the above, we urge all students to utilize the free escort service within the university area, and to program the Public Safety main service telephone number (937-229-2121) into their cellular telephone.

ADJUDICATION OF VIOLATIONS

Whether or not criminal charges are filed, the University or a person may file a complaint under the Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy alleging that a student or employee violated the University's prohibition on sexual harassment or other forms of discriminatory harassment. Based on federal guidance, Title IX requires that if an institution knows or reasonably should know of an incident of sexual harassment, including acts of sexual violence, the institution must take immediate and appropriate steps to investigate or otherwise determine what has occurred. An individual may request confidentiality in cases involving sexual violence or that no disciplinary action be pursued, however, efforts to honor such a request may limit the University's ability to fully respond to the incident. The University will make every effort to honor the request of the individual, but there may be situations where the University may override such a request in order to meet its Title IX obligations. For example, if the safety of the University community or legal compliance is jeopardized, then the University of Dayton may assume the role of the complainant, i.e., the University may bring the complaint on the victim's behalf. Consequently, whether a complainant chooses to cooperate in an investigation may or may not be the deciding factor for whether or not disciplinary charges are brought against an accused party.

Reports of all domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking made to Public Safety will automatically be referred to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation regardless of whether or not the victim chooses to pursue criminal charges.

The university will undertake a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution process transparent to the accuser and the accused. The University will use the preponderance of the evidence standard in determining whether there has been a violation of the Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy. Usually, the resolution of complaints of sexual misconduct are typically completed within 60 working days of the complaint, however the proceedings timeframe may be extended for good cause with written notice to the accuser and the accused of the delay and the reason for the delay. For students, matters – assuming probable cause exists to suggest that sexual discrimination occurred – are ultimately referred to the student hearing board for factual findings and resolution. For employees and visitors, the investigators make the factual findings and provide their report and recommendations to the Office of the Provost (where faculty is the respondent), the Office of Human Resources (where a staff member is the respondent) or the Office of Legal Affairs (where a visitor is the respondent). Investigators and hearing board members are trained annually on the issues related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking and taught how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of the victim and promotes accountability.

University of Dayton policy provides for certain rights for both the complainant and respondent, as spelled out in its Equity Complaint Process:

Complainant's Rights

- To be treated with respect by University officials.
- To an investigation and appropriate resolution of all complaints of discrimination and/or harassment made in good faith to the appropriate University official(s).
- To receive written notification that the respondent has been officially notified of the allegation of violating the University's Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy.
- To be notified of the substance of respondent's response, if any, to the allegations.
- To take advantage of campus support resources (such as Campus Ministry, the University Health and Counseling Centers for students, and Employee Assistance Program services for employees).
- To experience a safe living, educational and work environment.
- To have a support person of his or her choosing, including, but not limited to, a licensed attorney, during any meeting with investigators. The support person cannot be someone who may be called as a witness. The role of the support person is to serve as an advisor. He/she may be present at interviews, hearings and other proceedings, but is not permitted to speak.
- To decline to participate in conflict resolution procedures as the means for resolving an allegation.
- To receive amnesty for minor student misconduct (such as alcohol or drug violations) that is ancillary to the incident.
- To be free from retaliation for complaints made, or otherwise participating in an investigation, in good faith.
- To have complaints heard in substantial accordance with these procedures.
- To full participation in this process, whether the injured party is the actual party or the University has brought the complaint.
- To be informed in writing of the outcome/resolution of the complaint, sanctions where permissible and the rationale for the outcome where permissible.
- The ability to refer to law enforcement and have assistance in doing so, if the individual so chooses.

- For residential students, the ability to request housing and living accommodations, if appropriate.
- A “no contact order,” if appropriate. A no contact order is an order from a University official to have no contact with a particular person or persons. Contact is considered any verbal, written, electronic, non-verbal gesture, third party messages, indirect loud talking in the vicinity of the person and could include indirect actions that appear to the University to be intimidating. The University may add to the terms of no contact within the context of the reported incident that preceded the order or concerns that have arisen during the investigation.

Respondent’s Rights

- To be treated with respect by University officials.
- To an investigation and appropriate resolution of all complaints of discrimination and/or harassment made in good faith to the appropriate University official(s).
- To receive written notification if officially accused of violating the University’s Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy.
- To take advantage of campus support resources (such as Campus Ministry, the University Health and Counseling Centers for students, and Employee Assistance Program services for employees).
- To experience a safe living, educational and work environment.
- To have a support person of his or her choosing, including, but not limited to, a licensed attorney, during any meeting with investigators. The support person cannot be someone who may be called as a witness. The role of the support person is to serve as an advisor. He/she may be present at interviews, hearings and other proceedings, but is not permitted to speak.
- To decline to participate in conflict resolution procedures as the means for resolving an allegation.
- To receive amnesty for minor student misconduct (such as alcohol or drug violations) that is ancillary to the incident.
- To be free from retaliation for complaints made, or otherwise participating in an investigation, in good faith.
- To have complaints heard in substantial accordance with these procedures.
- To be informed of the outcome/resolution of the complaint and the rationale for the outcome, in writing.
- The ability to refer to law enforcement and have assistance in doing so, if the individual so chooses.
- For residential students, the ability to request housing and living accommodations, if appropriate.
- A “no contact order,” if appropriate. A no contact order is an order from a University official to have no contact with a particular person or persons. Contact is considered any verbal, written, electronic, non-verbal gesture, third party messages, indirect loud talking in the vicinity of the person and could include indirect actions that appear to the University to be intimidating. The University may add to the terms of no contact within the context of the reported incident that preceded the order or concerns that have arisen during the investigation.

These rights apply in any investigatory process stemming from any allegation of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking or hostile environment where probable cause exists that the University's Nondiscrimination and Non-Discrimination Policy has been violated. The rights apply whether the complainant or respondent is a student, employee or visitor.

When a complainant does not consent to the disclosure of his or her name or other identifiable information to the alleged perpetrator, the university's ability to respond to the complaint may be limited.

Confidentiality

The university will protect the identity of persons who report having been victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking as previously mentioned in this document.

Sanctions and Protective Measures

In all cases, investigations that result in a finding of more likely than not that a violation of the sexual harassment policy occurred will lead to the initiation of disciplinary procedures against the accused individual. University sanctions listed below may be imposed upon those determined to have violated this policy.

For students, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are violations of the University's Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy; by definition, violations of that University-wide policy are a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. For employees, commission of these acts is a violation of the University's Nondiscrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy, making the offending employee subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. In addition, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are criminal acts which also may subject the perpetrator to criminal and civil penalties under federal and state law.

The Title IX Coordinator or his designee, in conjunction with Residence Life staff, will determine whether interim interventions and protective measure should be implemented, and, if so, take steps to implement those protective measures as soon as possible. These remedies may be applied to one, both, or multiple parties involved. Violations of any directives and/or protective measures resulting from a Title IX proceeding will constitute related violations that may lead to additional disciplinary action. Protective measures imposed may be temporary pending the results of an investigation or may become permanent as determined by the University of Dayton.

* Residential Facility Crime Statistics are a subset of the On Campus Category, i.e. they are counted in both categories. The total number of crimes reported in any category is the sum of “on campus”, “non-campus”, and “public property” statistics.

** Statistics noted with ** were not required to be reported during the years listed.

*** During 2012 and 2013 statistics for Rape and Fondling were reported as a single category titled “Sex Offenses, Forcible”. Those statistics have been reviewed and the crimes listed in the appropriate category in this report.

**** During 2012 and 2013, statistics for Incest and Statutory Rape were reported as a single category titled, “Sex Offenses, Non-Forcible”. Those statistics have been reviewed. There were no crimes reported in either category during 2012 and 2013.

SITE CODE DESCRIPTIONS

The following site codes are used in the crime statistics chart presented on the previous pages.

The term “on campus” means any building or property owned or controlled by an institution of higher education within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution’s educational purposes, including residence halls; and property within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is used by students, and supports institutional purposes.

On-Campus Residential facilities for students are a subset of the “on campus” category, and include crimes reported to have occurred in residence halls, apartments, and houses in the reasonably contiguous geographic area, that are owned or controlled by the institution. Crimes listed in this category are also listed in the “on campus” category.

The term “non-campus” means any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization recognized by the institution; and any building or property (other than a branch campus) owned or controlled by an institution of higher education that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution’s educational purposes, is used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

The term “public property” means all public property that is within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution, such as a sidewalk, a street, or other thoroughfare, or parking facility, and is adjacent to a facility owned or controlled by the institution if the facility is used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution’s educational purposes.

UNIVERSITY BOUNDARIES

(Reasonably Contiguous Geographical Area)

The campus boundaries and the Department of Public Safety extended patrol area are defined on the below map. All outlined areas are included in the department's patrol efforts and crimes reported at locations within those boundaries are included in this report. The area of 1700 S. Patterson Boulevard not shown on the map includes the continuation of S. Patterson Boulevard to the fence and the fence to the Oakwood athletic fields.

NONCAMPUS PROPERTIES

The following noncampus properties were owned or controlled by the University of Dayton during the periods listed. Crimes reported at these locations are reflected in the noncampus section of the crime statistics table.

FIRE SAFETY REPORT FOR CALENDAR YEARS 2012-2014

FIRE LOG

The Department of Public Safety maintains a log of all fires reported within university owned or controlled housing. The fire log is available for public view at the Department of Public Safety business offices. The fire log for the most recent sixty days is available during business hours (8:30 AM to 4:30 PM Monday through Friday, except university holidays). Fire logs for periods older than sixty days are available during business hours and require two business days advance notification.

REGULAR, MANDATORY, SUPERVISED FIRE DRILLS IN STUDENT HOUSING FACILITIES

The University of Dayton conducts three regular, mandatory, supervised fire drills per academic year for each traditional residence hall and apartment building. Fire drills are provided upon request for houses. When the fire alarm is activated, all occupants must immediately evacuate the building by following the fire evacuation procedures outlined in the university's Emergency Response Guide as well as through the Residence Life staff. Failure to vacate the building during a fire alarm is a violation of university policy.

FIRE SAFETY RELATED STUDENT HOUSING POLICIES

The following behaviors are inconsistent with fire safety and are prohibited at the University of Dayton.

Appliances: Any use or possession of electrical appliances and cooking devices in residence halls and suite facilities other than those provided by the university.

Failure to Evacuate: Failure to leave a building during a fire alarm or a scheduled fire drill or failure to immediately vacate the general vicinity (all sidewalks, streets, alleys, yards and porches within a one block or 50 yard radius) of a house fire, street fire, yard fire, trash container fire or dumpster fire.

False Alarms: Activating false fire alarms or the improper use of the fire safety equipment (e.g., fire sprinkler heads, fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, exit signs, fire hoses, etc.).

Igniting: Any student identified or apprehended on campus in the student residential neighborhood for igniting or attempting to ignite a fire. This includes but is not limited to an interior fire, yard fire, street fire, trash container fire or dumpster fire; contributing in any way to an existing fire; abetting a fire (including providing material or accelerants to feed a fire); or by impeding attempts by university or city personnel to extinguish a fire.

Open Flame: The burning of candles, incense, smoking products or any other material in residence facilities.

Risk/Disregard: Any action that places a facility or community at risk for fire is strictly prohibited. This includes intentionally or unintentionally causing a fire, failure to immediately report a fire and /or an individual tampering with fire safety equipment/systems.

Tampering: Deactivating, damaging, obstructing and/or destroying fire safety equipment and /or systems.

FIRE ALARMS AND EVACUATION

All fire alarms are to be considered a result of a real fire, until competent authority (Public Safety or Fire Department personnel) advises otherwise.

In the event of a fire alarm or fire all occupants are to evacuate the building immediately using one of the predetermined evacuation routes. Elevators are not to be used during fire evacuations.

The last person out should close the door behind them.

If flames or smoke are in the escape path, occupants should use an alternate route for evacuation.

Persons finding themselves in a smoke-filled area should get down low on the floor and crawl under the smoke until past the threat.

Building occupants should gather outside, away from the building at a predetermined meeting place so everyone can be accounted for, and remain at the assembly area until released by police or fire officials.

Reporting Fire

Anyone seeing fire should immediately call Public Safety (937-229-2121 from a cellular telephone or 911 from a campus telephone) and provide all information about the location and type of fire.

Occupants may attempt to extinguish small and contained fires using a fire extinguisher. Wood and paper fires may be extinguished using water.

If the fire is not contained and is larger than a waste can, occupants should not attempt to extinguish it, but instead sound the fire alarm and evacuate the building.

If a Fire is Already Extinguished

The university is required to report all fires in student residential facilities, even if there is no damage. Anyone seeing evidence or hearing about a fire that has occurred in a student residential facility should contact the Public Safety dispatcher at 937-229-2121. Public Safety will record the information and ensure the location is checked by a fire official to ensure resident safety.

FIRE PREVENTION AND PREPAREDNESS

Do not tamper with, cover up, or otherwise interfere with the functionality of a smoke alarm. Keep the area around your smoke alarms clean and clear of dust, cobwebs, paper, decorations, etc.

Know where the closest fire extinguisher is located and the type of fire it is designed to extinguish. Keep exit doors and escape routes free from obstruction.

Know at least two routes to evacuate your building in case of fire and establish a designated assembly area outside of the building. Do not use elevators during a fire emergency.

Keep trash and debris in your living area at a minimum and do not store flammable products and substances in your area except as prescribed by the product manufacturer on its label. Observe common areas in your building and report any fire hazard or safety issues to Facilities Management immediately.

Keep high temperature items (light fixtures, appliances, irons, etc.) away from flammable items. Do not burn candles or incense in any building on campus.

FIRE SAFETY EDUCATION AND TRAINING PROGRAMS FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND STAFF

Environmental Health & Safety provides training to students, employees, faculty and staff. This training includes protocols for reporting fire, procedures for evacuating a building, use of fire extinguishers, and how to respond to other emergencies.

Students, employees, faculty and staff are provided with information about how to handle emergency situations via emails, public service announcements on the university operated television station, and an Emergency Response Procedure Quick Reference Guide. Residence Life and Facilities Management staff members receive training on their roles and responsibilities and should communicate this information to the students under their supervision. Residence Life and Facilities Management staff members are also invited to participate in fire drills so they can assist in providing feedback to the students.

Annually, the university conducts a “smoke out”, performed in partnership with the Dayton Fire Department using a theatrical smoke machine. A floor of a residence hall and a house are used to simulate a real fire scenario for students to experience. In addition, hands-on fire extinguisher training is provided during the event. Hands-on fire extinguisher training is held three times a year.

FUTURE IMPROVEMENTS TO FIRE SAFETY SYSTEMS

All fire alarm systems are maintained at their present capabilities and tested in accordance with current regulations. Improvements are planned and implemented concurrently with facility renovations.

UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON CHINA INSTITUTE

The China Institute is located in a single building within the Suzhou Industrial Park, Suzhou, China. The mailing address is:

University of Dayton China Institute
BioBay, Building C17
218 Xinghu Street
Suzhou Industrial Park
Suzhou, China 215123

Because the University of Dayton controls the property in support of its educational programs, the China Institute is considered a branch campus for purposes of compliance with requirements of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy as amended by the Campus Crime Statistics Act, the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, and the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. This section of the annual security report and fire safety report relates specifically to the China Institute campus.

LAW ENFORCEMENT ON CAMPUS

Security personnel are on site during hours when the campus is open, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm Monday through Friday. Security personnel do not have arrest authority. Security personnel do not investigate crimes or assist local law enforcement agencies with their investigations. Security personnel are not armed. Law enforcement authority is vested in the local police department. Their contact information is listed below.

YongAnQiao Police Station,
No. 318 LinQuan Street, SIP
Telephone: +86-512-62850110

CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITIES

Campus Security Authorities receive the same training and have the same reporting requirements as their counterparts at the Dayton, Ohio campus. Campus Security Authorities at the China Institute include the Director, UD China Institute, the Assistant Director for Student Development, and on-site security personnel.

Campus Security Authorities at the China Institute are required to report any crime reported to them to the Department of Public Safety. Crimes reported to Campus Security Authorities and forwarded to the Department of Public Safety are included in the crime statistics for the Campus Security and Fire Safety Report. This policy is necessary so the university can comply with federal regulations regarding disclosure of campus crimes. Confidential reports that provide sufficient detailed information for classification of the offense, whether or not they include personally identifying information, will be included in the crime statistics and in timely notifications to the China Institute community.

REPORTING CRIMES

Crimes should be reported to the local police department (contact information listed above) and may also be reported to a Campus Security Authority.

CRIME LOG

The daily crime log for the previous 60 days will be maintained in the China Institute administrative offices and is available for view from 9:00 am through 5:00 pm Monday through Friday. Requests to view crime logs older than 60 days require advance notification of two business days.

DISCLOSURE OF HEARING OUTCOMES

The University of Dayton will disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence, or a non-forcible sex offense, the results of any disciplinary hearing conducted by the university against the individual who is the alleged perpetrator of the crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, the University of Dayton will provide the results of such a disciplinary hearing to the victim's next of kin, if requested.

CITIZEN COMPLAINTS

Complaints regarding security personnel should be forwarded to the Director, UD China Institute. All such complaints will be fully investigated and appropriate corrective action taken.

PHYSICAL SECURITY

The building is open for business from 9:00 am through 5:00 pm Monday through Friday and is locked at all other times. Sixty-three of the building's 207 doors are equipped with electronic locks. Classroom doors are unlocked during the work day, locked at all other times.

Security personnel are present at all times when the building is open.

The leased residential apartments are locked at all times. The building is equipped with electronic locks.

TIMELY WARNING AND EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION

In the event of an incident, on or off campus, that constitutes an ongoing threat to the campus community, a timely warning in the form of a safety advisory for the China Institute community will be issued as soon as reasonably practical. Timely warnings are issued by Public Safety via the campus email system to each current student, faculty, and staff member at the China Institute.

During calendar year 2014, no safety advisories were issued.

In the event of an emergency, UD China Institute students, staff, and faculty will be notified via the campus email system, as well as text message, if a Chinese cell phone number is available. The Assistant Director for Student Development and Director, UD China Institute will jointly make the decision as to whether an emergency notification needs to be made. The Assistant Director for Student Development, and her team of Resident Assistants, will be responsible for triggering the notification. No automatic calling system is in place to call everyone, as the students, staff, and faculty on site at the China Institute differ from semester to semester (Fall, Spring, Summer). Lists containing the current cohort members' email and Chinese cell phone numbers will be used to issue the notification. The system will be tested for each cohort upon arrival in Suzhou, China.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION

In the event of an emergency impacting the China Institute and/or the surrounding community, China Institute staff will implement the evacuation plan after confirming a significant emergency or dangerous situation. All community members will be notified and the notification will be initiated as rapidly as the situation permits. In addition, local authorities including the local property management company and local police department will be notified.

Announced drills for emergency response and evacuation are conducted at least once per year. Fire alarms are tested each month.

China Institute staff has communicated with local authorities for the purposes of ensuring a coordinated response to an emergency. Local law enforcement will manage emergencies occurring on campus.

The China Institute has published an emergency response guide for distribution to students, faculty, and staff.

CRIME PREVENTION

All UD students (domestic and international) studying at the China Institute receive a safety and security orientation at the Dayton, OH campus prior to departure for China. All students receive on-site safety and security briefings at the China Institute immediately upon arrival during orientation.

University of Dayton students are subject to local laws while in China and are also required to adhere to all aspects of the student standards of behavior/code of conduct while in China. Students studying in China agree to the terms of participating in the program and release of records during the application phase; appropriate standards of behavior is specifically stipulated in the terms. During orientation on site at the China Institute, students complete a student expectations contract.

MISSING PERSONS

All reports of missing persons are taken seriously and investigated fully until the person is located. Any student missing for 24 or more hours (or earlier if circumstances warrant) should be reported to the Director of the China Institute, immediately, with as much detail as possible. Investigation of missing persons is a coordinated effort between China Institute officials and local law enforcement, using both university and law enforcement means to determine the location and well-being of the missing person.

- Anyone aware of a missing student should immediately notify the Director, UD China Institute.
- The missing person's name and identifying information will be provided to local law enforcement agencies in Suzhou, regardless of whether the student has registered a contact person (see below).
- China Institute officials will also notify Student Development and the University of Dayton Department of Public Safety.
- Parents or guardians will be notified if the missing student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated. In exigent circumstances, parents may be contacted to aid in determining the location of a missing student.

- China Institute officials will conduct a thorough investigation to determine the location of the missing student and may be assisted by Student Development and the Department of Public Safety. This may include interviews with known acquaintances, family members, instructors, residence hall staff, and others who may individually or collectively aid in the investigation.

Students may name a confidential contact person to be contacted in the event they are reported missing. This person may be anyone of their choosing. Students wishing to register a contact person may do so by contacting the Director of Administration and Security at Public Safety (937) 229-2129 or by e-mail to rgoesbeck1@udayton.edu. Students studying solely at the China Institute may register their contact by contacting the Director of the China Institute. Information submitted for contact persons is confidential and may only be accessed by law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation.

DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

While Chinese law permits the consumption of alcoholic beverages at the age of 18, University of Dayton policy requires students under the age of 21 to refrain from consumption of alcoholic beverages.

The use, possession, sale, manufacture, or distribution of any illegal drug is strictly prohibited.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

As an extension of the University of Dayton, the China Institute maintains the same level of commitment to maintaining a campus environment emphasizing the dignity and worth of all community members. In this context, the University of Dayton prohibits the offenses of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and works to develop and implement programs at the China Institute to inform the community regarding sexual harassment and sexual violence through preventive programming and through the thorough investigation of all reports of sexual harassment or sexual violence.

All provisions of the student code of conduct and human resources policies relating to sexual harassment and sexual violence are in full effect while students, staff, and faculty are at the China Institute. The University of Dayton definitions of consent, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking also apply to students, staff, and faculty at the China Institute.

Chinese law does differ in its definition and investigation of sexual violence. In China, sex offenses mainly refer to the following crimes, among others: rape; forced obscene behavior; insulting women; child molestation; organizing prostitution; forced prostitution; seducing, sheltering, or introducing prostitution; and seducing or raping young females. There are no clear definitions of stalking or dating violence in Chinese law. Domestic violence is defined as acts or behaviors to beat, tie up, mutilate, force restrictions of personal freedom, to family members causing physical or mental harm.

In China, most sexual assaults are prosecuted either by the procuratorate or the victim's private prosecutor. The court considers the relationship of the victim and perpetrator, the consent of the victim at the time of the offense, and physical/forensic evidence. In China, individuals found guilty of sex offenses may be sentenced to prison for at least three to ten years (or more), life imprisonment, or death, dependent upon the seriousness of the offense.

Sexual harassment victims may report violations and crimes to local law enforcement officials, China Institute officials, or both. China Institute officials will assist victims with notification of local law enforcement, if the victim so desires. China Institute officials will also conduct an investigation and conduct disciplinary hearings in the same fashion as at the main campus, or may refer students to Community Standards and Civility at the Dayton, Ohio campus as appropriate. The same potential disciplinary sanctions apply at the China Institute as the Dayton, Ohio campus. As in the United States, preservation of evidence is encouraged and will aid investigation of the incident.

China Institute officials will maintain the confidentiality of victims of sexual offenses and will provide alternate living, working, or study arrangements for victims upon request, in as much as they are available. China Institute officials will report the occurrence of a sexual harassment incident to the University of Dayton Department of Public Safety to ensure statistics are accurately reported in the Campus Security and Fire Safety Report.

The China Institute did not conduct any sexual assault prevention programs in 2014. China Institute staff is developing these programs for presentation to students, staff, and faculty. U.S. students attend sexual harassment prevention programming at the Dayton, Ohio campus.

China Institute Student Development staff are available to provide support for victims and accused perpetrators. The China Institute does not have trained on-site counselors, but will facilitate discussion with counselors on the main campus, either through telephone conversation or video conference. In addition, counseling services are available at a counseling center in the Suzhou Higher Education District.

As in the United States, bystanders are encouraged to report any crime they witness, including sexual harassment violations or crimes.

Possible Title IX violations occurring at the China Institute campus will be reported to the University of Dayton Title IX coordinator and investigated/documentated accordingly.

In China, sex offender records are maintained by law enforcement. There is no sexual offender registry.

* Residential Facility Crime Statistics are a subset of the On Campus Category, i.e. they are counted in both categories. The total number of crimes reported in any category is the sum of “on campus”, “non-campus”, and “public property” statistics.

** University of Dayton China Institute was not a branch campus for the entirety of calendar year 2012. Crime reporting began with calendar year 2013.

*** These statistics were not required to be reported during the years listed.

**** During 2013 statistics for Rape and Fondling were reported as a single category titled “Sex Offenses, Forcible”. Those statistics have been reviewed and the crimes listed in the appropriate category in this report.

**** During 2012 and 2013, statistics for Incest and Statutory Rape were reported as a single category titled, “Sex Offenses, Non-Forcible”. Those statistics have been reviewed. There were no crimes reported in either category during 2013.

UD CHINA INSTITUTE CAMPUS BOUNDARIES

The UD China Institute campus is the single building located at Biobay, Building C17, 218 Xinghu Street, Suzhou Industrial Park, Suzhou, 215123 and the immediately adjacent grounds. Borders are buildings C18, C19, and C20, the parking lot export road north of the building, and the access road west of the building.

NONCAMPUS PROPERTIES/FIRE SAFETY REPORT

The following noncampus property was controlled by the China Institute for the purpose of housing students on an as-required basis during calendar year 2014. The individual apartment locations and number used varies according to the number of students enrolled. This facility is equipped with fire extinguishers, sprinkler system, and a centrally monitored fire alarm system.
