

Emergency Notification	Safety Advisory	Flyer Aware
Scope: Wide focus; any significant emergency or dangerous situation.	Scope: Narrow focus; Clery Act crimes on Clery geography only.	Scope: Wide focus; any situation that could impact personal safety and security; non-emergency situations that are important, but do not fit into first- or second-tier group.
Why: Any significant emergency or dangerous situation occurring on campus involving an immediate/impending threat to health or safety of campus community members.	Why: Any Clery Act crime on Clery geography reported to a CSA or local law enforcement and considered a serious or continuing threat to the campus community.	Why: To provide information to campus community members regarding situations that could impact personal safety/security or cause large-scale concern to community members.
Where: Situations that occur on campus	Where: Clery crimes that occur on Clery geography.	Where: Focused generally on campus, but flexible enough to include situations occurring near campus that could impact our campus community.
When: Initiated immediately upon confirmation of the existence of the danger/emergency.	When: Issued as soon as pertinent information is available. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nature of the crime • Continuing danger to campus community • Possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts 	When: Varies. The situation may involve the need for an immediate notification while others may allow for a delay in the issuance to allow for greater detail/information to be provided.