

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

OCT 21 | 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM | KU 310

Audience: administrative staff

This presentation will provide participants a brief overview of the University's Emergency Response Plan, including the all hazards approach to planning, incident command structure, emergency operations center, and communications. More in depth information will be shared on how you can best prepare and respond to the emergencies that you would be most likely to encounter.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES

Helps staff:

- Understand the University's emergency response plan.
- Increase knowledge on how to best prepare and respond to emergencies.

COMPETENCIES DEVELOPED

UD: Personal Character - Builds Relationships and Community; Communicates with Skill and Candor NASPA/ACPA: Human and Organizational Resources; Ethical Professional Practice Marianist Administration: Organizational Assets - Networking

REGISTRATION

Register at the division's staff page on OrgSync

CHIEF BRUCE BURT

Bruce is the Executive Director of Public Safety and Chief of Police for the University of Dayton. He is currently serving in his 14th year in that position. His responsibilities include the oversight and supervision of the University of Dayton Police, Parking Services, Emergency Medical Services, Student Escort Program, and Emergency Management. Prior to starting his career with UD he served with the Dayton Police Department for 25 years before retiring from service at the rank of Major in the position of Patrol Operations Superintendent. He is a graduate of Youngstown State University and the Police Executive Leadership College.

MAJOR RANDY GROESBECK

Randy is the Director of Administration and Security for the University of Dayton Police. He is currently serving in his 26th year at the University. His responsibilities include the oversight and supervision of the Communications Center, Student Rescue Squad, CLERY Compliance, Public Record Management, Safety and Security Systems, Equipment/Technology Acquisition, Budget Management and other administrative responsibilities. Randy also served in the U.S. Marine Corps for 20 years before retiring to his second career with UD. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Dayton.

SPONSORED BY THE DIVISION OF STUDENT DEVELOPMENT