Responsibilities

The Office of Community Standards and Civility is responsible to the University of Dayton community to assist in the resolution of student conduct cases as described in the University of Dayton Standards of Behavior. The primary role of the Office of Community Standards and Civility's Student Conduct Graduate Assistant will be to assist in the management of student conduct issues as they arise in the office as well as serve as the primary coordinator of student consequences. The Standards of Behavior exist to protect the rights of the University of Dayton community. Each standard has been created in partnership with students, faculty, and staff. The Office of Community Standards and Civility, in upholding these standards, utilizes an educational philosophy through (1) developmental sanctioning, (2) peer based hearing boards, (3) trained adjudication officers and hearing board members, and (4) educational opportunities that relate to community, civility, and responsibility. The Student Conduct Graduate Assistant is responsible for the coordination of various educational and developmental training sessions designed to increase student awareness of the University's expectations and standards regarding social conduct. Additionally, the graduate assistant will be cross trained in order to gain a skill set for each role in the student conduct system.
