

Position Background: Neighborhood Fellow

A Neighborhood Fellow is a person who fosters student growth through community development. A Neighborhood Fellow assists students in their transition, integration, and progression through community living in the Student Neighborhood. The Neighborhood Fellow is responsible for areas such as social, cultural, service, and educational programming, peer counseling, and facilitating an environment that is conducive to learning. The Department of Housing & Residence Life seeks students who are responsible, mature, and creative. Additionally, we seek candidates who exercise good time management, demonstrate potential for peer leadership, possess critical thinking skills, and act as positive role models among their peers. A successful candidate will be a current sophomore/junior/senior, have and maintain a 2.50 cumulative GPA and be in good judicial standing with the university.

Position Background: Resident Assistant

A Resident Assistant (RA) is a person who fosters student growth through community development. An RA assists students in their transition, integration, and progression through community living. The RA is responsible for areas such as social, cultural, service, and educational programming, peer counseling, and facilitating an environment that is conducive to learning. The Department of Housing & Residence Life seeks students who are responsible, mature, and creative. Additionally, we seek candidates who exercise good time management, demonstrate potential for peer leadership, and act as positive role models among their peers. A student must have a GPA of 2.50 or higher, and be in good judicial standing with the university in order to be considered for an RA position.
