

Engagement Plan

Making the most of your UD experience!

Step 1:

What are your interests? (ex. Baseball, Community Service, Singing, Studying)

Step 2:

What is your desired level of engagement? Remember, you are a student first and balance is key.

_____ Active Member (attends meetings, staffs events, etc.)
 _____ Volunteer Leader (committee chair, officer, Executive Board member of an organization, etc.)
 _____ Paid Leader/Student Employee (Resident Assistant, SI Instructor, NSO Student Coordinator, etc.)

Step 3a:

Choose up to 3 engagement pathways you can see yourself following:

Academic Community                  Challenge yourself academically with your college, major, and classmates. (ex. Study Abroad, Teaching Assistant, Research) Service                  Connect with the city of Dayton and help others in need. (ex. Community agencies, individual service, Center for Social Concern)	Wellness/Recreation                  Stay active and involved with many diverse opportunities! (ex. Intramurals, fitness classes, Adventure experiences) Student Development/Peer Leadership                  Develop your leadership skills with paid or non-paid positions! (ex. Student employment, Camp Blue Counselor, Leadership Conference)	Faith Formation                  Grow in your faith and find a community of exploration. (ex. Retreats, Support Groups, communities of practice) Student Organizations                  Join a group in one of the 8 categories! (ex. Academic, Values-Based Greek, Media, Governing, Faith-Based, Recreation, Service, Special Interest)
--	--	---

Step 3b:

	Pathway	Opportunity
Example	Student Development	Orientation Leader
1 st Choice	_____	_____
2 nd Choice	_____	_____
3 rd Choice:	_____	_____

Step 4:

Do the homework!

- NSO Engagement Fair – This fair is designed to highlight all non-student organization pathways and opportunities.
- Up The Orgs – This fair spotlights the student organizations on campus, providing opportunities for incoming students to meet current members, ask questions, and get involved.

Preparation Recommendation

- Check Isidore for an overview of the pathways and opportunities
- Prepare a list of questions to ask organization representatives (i.e. How will membership enhance my time at UD?)