

NATIVE PEOPLES OF THE AMERICAS COLLOQUIUM

Nov. 9 – 11

The University of Dayton will hold a three-day colloquium featuring sessions on Native American identity and culture.

The event will open with an introduction to the native art of drum making, four films, book discussions, musical events and speakers including Robert Roche, Phyllis Young and Chadwick Allen.

Award-winning poet and writer Sherman Alexie will close the conference with a reading, a question-and-answer session and a book signing. The event is free and open to the public Tuesday, Nov. 11, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Kennedy Union ballroom.

Learn more at go.udayton.edu/npac.

SPONSORS

Academic Affairs and Learning Initiatives, College of Arts and Sciences Cluster Coordinating Committee, ArtStreet, Center for Social Concern, Circle of Light Program, Communication, English, Graduate School, Graul Chair in Arts and Languages, History, Institutional Diversity and Inclusion, Office of Multicultural Affairs, Office of the President, Office of the Provost, Philosophy, Religious Studies, University of Dayton Speaker Series, University Libraries Diversity and Inclusion Committee and Women's Center

EXTERNAL COLLABORATORS

Alpha Phi Omega, American Indian Education Center, Chaske Hotain Singers, Ga-Li, Medicine Bow Forge, Standing Rock Indian Reservation, Two Trees Inc., University of Dayton Speaker Series and Weinkauff Film Productions

