

2015 TRANSITIONS

PRE-ORIENTATION PROGRAM

Incoming First-Year UD Students Register NOW:

Transitions, held the week before new student orientation, is a free of cost pre-orientation program for incoming first-year multicultural students, sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs.

Students are introduced to integral support services and resources through a series of presentations and activities. Students are also provided with an opportunity to network with fellow UD students, faculty, staff, and administrators.

Students attending Transitions may also participate in other pre-orientation programs on campus (ie., Honors Students Welcome, Camp Blue). After registration is complete, students will receive directions on how to apply for early arrival.

2015 Transitions is Thursday, August 20 - Friday, August 21, 2015.

Registration is now open

Students will be able to move in on Thursday, August 20.

Why you should participate!

- FREE!
- Early Move In
- Access to Campus Resources
- Meet New and Current Students
- Time to adjust to campus before the semester begins
- Programs to help develop you socially, academically and culturally for life at UD

