

2016 TRANSITIONS

PRE-ORIENTATION PROGRAM

Incoming First-Year UD Students Register NOW:

Transitions, held the week before new student orientation, is a free pre-orientation program for incoming first-year multicultural students and families, sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs.

Students are introduced to integral support services and resources through a series of presentations and activities. Students are also provided with an opportunity to network with fellow UD students, faculty, staff, and administrators.

Students attending Transitions may also participate in other pre-orientation programs on campus (ie., Honors Students Welcome, Camp Blue). After registration is complete, students will receive directions from OMA, including a schedule of events.

Registration opens on June 1-Aug. 5 in the UD Housing Application Portal myhousing.udayton.edu

Students will be able to move in on Thursday, August 18th, between 9:00-5:00 p.m.
The welcome reception begins for all on Aug. 18 at 6:00 p.m.

2016 Transitions: Thursday, August 18 - Friday, August 19

Deadline to apply has been extended to Friday, August 5, 2016

Why you should participate!

- FREE!
- Early Move-In
- Access to Campus Resources
- Meet New and Current Students
- Student and Parent Information Sessions
- Time to adjust to campus before the semester begins
- Programs to help develop you socially, academically and culturally for life at UD

Office of Multicultural Affairs

Office of Multicultural Affairs

