The University of Dayton's values-based Greek Life community believes in a united set of Shared Values that link its members to the mission of the institution and pursuit of a vibrant commitment to community. While each organization lives out these values in unique and respectful manners, we are reminded of our interconnectedness as we strive for excellence in core areas of leadership, service, academics, networking, and lifelong friendship. The Standards of Achievement will guide each organization toward values congruence in these identified areas.

In support of these goals, Greek Life staff and the University of Dayton champion the value-added experience fostered by membership in our fraternities and sororities. These organizations promote the model of community living in daily practices, with emphasis on our Marianist habits of inquiry and critical reflection. Steadfast in pursuit of common learning outcomes for all, the Standards of Achievement serve most directly as a blueprint for accountability among members and organizations. Staff, students, alumni, advisers, headquarters support staff, families, and community agents stand united in ensuring that espoused values and enacted behavior align. In order to remain consistent with the University's mission to learn, lead, and serve, we reflect upon our strategic plan, fraternity and sorority creeds, and international best practices to support holistic leadership development.

Included in the remainder of this packet is a brief summary of each standard, summary checklists regarding standard due dates, links to online reporting forms, systems for recognition, and additional campus/community resources for organizations to excel. Officers and advisers should collaborate routinely with organizational excellence as a priority to ensure adherence to the yearly plan of accountability for the chapter. Standards are designed with intentionality to meet university outcomes and align closely with individual inter/national standards for member development. Keep note that programmatic standards are tied to a calendar year cycle that most closely matches chapter officer transitions. Recognition mechanisms reward all organizations that exceed expectations beyond the baseline standard of accountability. We are proud to challenge and affirm multiple perspectives as we collaborate toward growing our community with health and sustainability at the forefront.

RECOGNITION STANDARDS

1. ORGANIZATION RECOGNITION: All student organizations, including values-based Greek organizations, must be recognized through the Center for Student Involvement. The office will support fraternities and sororities that maintain active organization status through this process, which is renewed annually through the online Community system.

2. ROSTER UPDATES: Chapters must provide timely and accurate updates to the membership roster so that Greek Life staff can offer the most targeted support. Active and new members must be accounted for in each semester, and official membership numbers often vary at several times throughout the year. We will utilize standard dates for reporting/updating, such that all students, advisers, and staff are aware of the membership totals for proper verification and recognition.

3. ADVISERS: An advisory group is critical to the success of chapter operations. Each chapter shall have a chapter adviser who either lives or works within the immediate metropolitan area and is an alumnus of the fraternity or sorority. All organizations are also required to have an involved faculty/staff advisor who is a full time member of the faculty or administrative staff at the University of Dayton. Where applicable, when the organization maintains special interest housing, a house corporation president (or designated representative) must be in place.

PROGRAMMING STANDARDS

4. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE: To maintain non-restricted recognition by the University, each chapter must submit grade release forms electronically for new members. Chapter aggregate GPAs will be reported to leadership within the organization and across campus. All values-based Greek organizations should endeavor to maintain an overall grade point average for its full membership that is above the respective male and female campus average for the most recent semester.

5. NEW MEMBER ORIENTATION: New member programs must be pre-planned before recruitment/intake begins and must not last longer than eight (8) weeks. A full list of all new members who accept the offer to join and individual anti-hazing agreements must be submitted electronically. Attendance at all Greek 101 programs is required for all new members in each chapter, and proof of initiation is required at the conclusion of the new member/intake period.

6. SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY: Each organization must attend a series of educational sessions, hosted by the university or an approved presenter, which educate members on key components of risk management policies and best practices for bystander intervention, healthy relationships, and social interactions. Center for Student Involvement staff will offer training sessions throughout the year for students' benefit and connect chapters to appropriate resources and educators around campus. One must come in the form of an approved prevention education program and the second is an Event Management Training (EMT) workshop.

7. COLLABORATIVE PROGRAM: Each chapter must adopt or host at least two (2) programs each year co-sponsored with another university organization, where one (1) is with an organization from another values-based Greek governing council and one (1) is with a non-Greek student organization. The programs should involve at least 75% of the active chapter membership over the course of the year.

8. DIVERSITY PROGRAM: Each chapter, in partnership with a University of Dayton faculty/staff member, shall organize and implement one program or activity that encourages both an appreciation of and a commitment to promoting diversity within the fraternity/sorority community, involving at least 75% of the active chapter membership over the course of the year.

9. COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECTS: Each chapter is expected to adopt, host, or significantly participate in at least three (3) community service projects each year, involving at least 75% of the active chapter membership over the course of the year. One (1) of these should contribute direct volunteer service hours to the city of Dayton and/or the surrounding neighborhood community, and one (1) should give back to the University community on campus grounds. The third can be a program of the chapter's choosing.

10. PHILANTHROPY PROJECT: Each chapter is expected to adopt, host, or significantly participate in at least one philanthropic project each year, involving at least 75% of the active chapter membership over the course of the year.

Standard 1: Organization Re-recognition

All student organizations, including values-based Greek organizations, must be recognized through the Center for Student Involvement. Greek Life staff will support fraternities and sororities that maintain active organization status through this process, which is renewed annually through the online Community system.

In order to meet this standard for Organization Re-recognition, the following step should be taken:

- A. Each chapter must use Community to complete the annual recognition process by May 30, 2014:

The current chapter president will receive notification from the Center for Student Involvement in late spring to complete this process in Community. Organizations may begin the process after the last day of courses in April when event registration has shut down, re-registering the chapter as a recognized group for the year ahead. Once the system is open, chapters have until May 30, 2014 to complete the process.

Standard 2: Roster Updates

Chapters must provide timely and accurate updates to the membership roster for the office to provide the most targeted support. Active and new members must be accounted for in each semester, and officially membership numbers often vary at several times throughout the year. We will utilize standard dates for reporting, such that all students, advisers, and staff are aware of the membership totals for proper reporting, verification, and recognition.

In order to meet this standard, the following step should be taken:

- A. Timely and accurate updates of the chapter membership roster should be submitted to the online Community system by the following dates, with noted confirmations/edits/additions/deletions:

- *January 24, 2014 (confirm active returners from fall, being sure to remove December graduates)
- *March 7, 2014 (all active members on roster by this date will be counted in spring 2014 grades)
- *May 2, 2014 (all new members on roster by this date will also be counted in spring 2014 grades)
- *October 10, 2014 (all active members on roster by this date will be counted in fall 2014 grades)
- *December 12, 2014 (all new members on roster by this date will also be counted in fall 2014 grades)

Standard 3: Advisers

An advisory group is critical to the success of chapter operations. Each chapter shall have a chapter adviser who either lives or works within the immediate metropolitan area and is an alumnus of the fraternity or sorority. All organizations are also required to have an involved faculty/staff adviser who is a full time member of the faculty or administrative staff at the University of Dayton. Where applicable, when the organization maintains special interest housing, a house corporation president (or designated representative) must be in place.

In order to meet this standard, the following steps should be taken:

- A. Each chapter must verify the name, address, and phone number(s) of their chapter adviser on file with Greek Life by January 24, 2014. This should match the chapter advisor information entered in the Community system.
- B. Each chapter must verify the name, address, and phone number(s) of their faculty/staff adviser on file with Greek Life by January 24, 2014. This should match the chapter advisor information entered in the Community system.

C. Where applicable, each chapter with a special interest house must verify the name, address, and phone number(s) of the House Corporation Board President and/or designated Officer(s)/Representatives(s) on file with Greek Life by January 24, 2014.

NOTE: These deadline dates can be extended to in the case where an adviser has stepped down in the previous year and a replacement is being sought. If an adviser has stepped down in the previous semester or over the summer, chapters with a vacancy in the chapter or faculty/staff adviser will be advised by the Director or Assistant Director of Greek Life.

Standard 4: Academic Performance

To maintain non-restricted recognition by the University, each chapter must submit electronic grade release forms for new members. Chapter aggregate GPAs will be reported to leadership within the organization and across campus. All values-based Greek organizations should endeavor to maintain an overall grade point average for its full current membership that is above the respective male and female campus average for the most recent fall or spring semester.

In order to meet this standard, the following step should be taken:

A. Each new member or neophyte/initiate/associate must sign a grade release card upon entrance into his or her fraternal organization. All cards for newest joiners should be submitted to Greek Life by February 24, 2014 (IFC/CPC)/April 25, 2014 (NPHC) for the spring semester and October 10, 2014 (IFC/CPC)/December 12, 2014 (NPHC) for the fall semester. (If there is an extenuating circumstance that prevents one or more individual student from accepting an offer to join by these semester deadlines, please alert the Assistant Director of Greek Life. The cards already signed by all other new joiners should be turned in by the deadline).

NOTE: Once a student has a card on file, that student is not required to fill out another release form while s/he remains in at the University. In the fall and spring, new members/neophytes/initiates/associates will be added, and members who have graduated or become inactive will be deleted. Grade release cards are available online and via Greek Life staff.

You can access the grade release form here: goo.gl/jpkQYQ

Standard 5: New Member Orientation Program

New member programs must be pre-planned before recruitment/intake begins and must not last longer than eight (8) weeks. A full list of all new members who accept the offer to join and individual anti-hazing agreements must be submitted electronically. Attendance at all Greek 101 programs is required for all new members in each chapter, and proof of initiation is required at the conclusion of the new member/intake period.

In order to meet this standard, the following steps should be taken:

A. Each chapter must submit a list of new members who have accepted the offer to join (IFC/CPC), including the student ID number, or the Intake Petition Form (NPHC) to Greek Life by February 24, 2014 (all) for the spring semester and October 10, 2014 (IFC/CPC)/October 31, 2014 (NPHC) for the fall semester.

You can access the form\(s\) here: goo.gl/jpkQYQ

B. All new members must electronically sign the Anti-Hazing Agreement. The electronic forms must be submitted by March 7, 2014 (all) for the spring semester and October 10, 2014 (IFC/CPC) October 31, 2014 (NPHC) for the fall semester and Chapter advisers will receive the final list of new members to verify an adviser's presence during the electronic signing of the Anti-Hazing Agreement.

You can access the form here: goo.gl/jpkQYQ

C. All new members of each chapter are required to attend all Greek 101 and Encore programs. A calendar of Greek 101 and Encore events/programs is made available by the Greek Life staff in advance of any recruitment/intake periods starting, so that chapters, councils, and any person pursuing new member status can view these prior to joining an organization. Attendance at Greek 101 events will be recorded by Greek Life staff in cooperation with each chapter's New Member Educator at each event. If a new member is unable to attend a scheduled Greek 101 session, the new member educator must submit a Greek 101 Excuse form, which can be Found Here or on the Greek Life website. All Greek 101 Excuse Forms must be approved by the Greek Life office prior to the event.

Center for Student Involvement staff will offer training sessions throughout the year for students' benefit and connect chapters to appropriate resources and educators around campus. One must come in the form of an approved prevention education program and the other is an Event Management Training (EMT) workshop.

In order to meet this standard, the following steps should be taken:

A. Each chapter must have 75% of its chapter membership attend a program on healthy decisions and social relationships, where the subject matter can come in the form of education/training in the following core areas: Sexual Violence Prevention Education, Alcohol and Other Drug (AoD) Prevention Education, Hazing Prevention Education, or another inter/nationally recognized risk management program covering many of the above named topics. Chapters are encouraged to meet with and select a customizable program from the university's Coordinator of Sexual Violence Prevention Education and/or the Coordinator of Alcohol and other Drug Prevention Education or attend a pre-set program from the menu options these individuals offer.

IMPLEMENTATION AND RECOGNITION

Fraternalities and sororities will be required to meet all of the standards outlined above. Completion of the full set of standards ensures that a chapter remains in Good Standing status with the Center for Student Involvement. Good Standing status allows an organization to have full access to all recognized student organization benefits and privileges, and this information is shared with inter/national headquarters staff, advisers, prospective members, and community partners, who inquire on the healthy and sustainability of the organization.

To complete each standard, directions are provided that indicate what reporting mechanism must be utilized. We have successfully moved reporting to an online format and further linked follow-up evaluations to event registration in Community. Please follow directions closely for each specific standard, noting that many of the reporting steps should be completed directly after an event's conclusion (within 2 weeks, or less).

For most programming standards, chapters should follow this general pattern:

1. Register the event before it is to occur.
2. Specifically note in advance that the event is intended to (also) qualify as a Standards of Achievement requirement.
3. After the event, go back into Community to locate the event in the "Past Events" section for your organization.
 - a. Using the "Edit" function, add event notes and accomplishments of intended learning. Be sure to save any other statistical information to accurately reflect the event's outcomes (service hours, money raised, etc.).
 - b. Also use the "View" function to add attendance figures (or your may use a swipe card at your event).

If chapters fail to meet any of the standards, a period of probation will ensue where the chapter is noted as being Not in Good Standing. Probation may include a moratorium on hosting social events, limitations on participating in other campus activities such as intramurals, residing in University-owned property, etc. Probationary chapters would be encouraged to work toward realizing any and all standards not achieved. When a chapter has then met the relevant expectations, it will return to full participation in campus and fraternity/sorority life. Failure to meet the standards after a probationary period will result in loss of University recognition, necessitating the severing of the University's relationship with the organization. Chapters that experience extreme hardship attempting to accomplish any one of the standards or fail to implement a standard because of unforeseen circumstances may request an exception to this policy. The request must be made to the Director of Greek Life.

The status of Good Standing/Not in Good Standing is different from that of any disciplinary standing issued by Community Standards & Civility. Disciplinary results from a sanctioned hearing officer of University Hearing Board (UHB) may involve a probation, suspension, or expulsion, where these terms and statuses are distinctly different from the Standards of Achievement program. Any status change from Community Standards & Civility will be upheld and supported by Greek Life staff in the Center for Student Involvement, as those decisions (and often accompanying educational sanctioning packages) extend across all student and student organization lines.

It is our firm belief that all recognized values-based fraternities and sororities at the University of Dayton are capable of meeting and exceeding the Standards of Achievement. In affirmation of this dedication, we have a system of recognition and rewards that showcase our high-achieving organizations. This tiered system indicates which organizations have exemplified values-based Greek Life principles by attaining a status above Good Standing. In learning through additional experiences and extending the core values of their creeds, fraternities and sororities may attain Bronze, Silver, or Gold status. More than just a system of incentives to hit a higher mark, proper recognition for exemplary performance is important for members, chapters, and the community to properly express gratitude and signify respect for those groups who achieve at the highest levels.
