

LEGAL ISSUES IN STUDENT AFFAIRS

Jul. 7, 2015 | 1:30 – 3:30 PM | KU West Ballroom

Audience: all staff

---

Come learn more regarding key legal considerations and pitfalls for student affairs professionals. We will examine important legal trends and learn about relevant case law that could impact your work. Some issues to be presented have recently received media attention, our discussion will provide an opportunity to learn from those experiences.

COMPETENCIES DEVELOPED

---

UD: Personal Character - Develops professional and technical skills
Judgement

NASPA/ACPA: Law, Policy and Governance
Leadership

Marianist Administration: Organizational Processes - Decision Making

REGISTRATION

---

Register online at the Student Development Staff page on OrgSync

MARY ANNE POIRIER

Mary Ann joined UD as its General Counsel in November 2012. Prior to joining UD's legal team, Mary Ann most immediately practiced law with Dinsmore & Shohl LLP in Dayton. From 2006 to 2009, she served as Deputy General Counsel of the United States Environmental Protection Agency at its headquarters in Washington, DC. From 1996 to 2006, Mary Ann was an associate and then partner in the international law firm Baker Botts L.L.P., practicing in their Washington, DC office. Mary Ann is a member of the Ohio Bar and has inactive licenses in DC and Tennessee.

---

LISA SANDNER

Lisa joined UD in September 1994. Prior to law school, Lisa worked for Fordham University as the Director of Annual Giving. Lisa's areas of primary responsibility include: University policy development; student affairs/student conduct; FERPA and other privacy issues; international travel issues; threat assessment; risk management; contracts and business transactions; institutional compliance. Lisa chairs the University Policy Coordinating Committee and also serves on the University's C.A.R.E. Team (threat assessment), International Response Team and Risk Management Team.