

THE COACHING LEADER

Sept. 23 & 24 | 8:30 AM – 12:00 PM | KU

Audience: Executive directors, directors, supervisors, coordinators, professionals

---

The increasing speed and complexity of business today makes it challenging for leaders to keep up. Now more than ever, leaders need employees that are capable and willing to step-up and take on more responsibility. In order to achieve the goals of your business and retain the best employees it's imperative for leaders to use a coaching leadership style.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES

---

Helps leaders:

- Understand the importance of coaching as a leadership skill.
- Identify the most critical skills to being an effective coach.
- Demonstrate the coaching process in a performance and developmental coaching situation.

COMPETENCIES DEVELOPED

---

UD: People/Interpersonal - Intentionally builds leadership capacity as central to our value
Personal Character - Develops professional and technical skills

NASPA/ACPA: Human and Organizational Resources

Marianist Administration: Organizational Assets - Managing People

REGISTRATION

---

Register online at the Student Development Staff page on OrgSync

MATT BECKER

---

Matt Becker is the owner of Authentic Excellence LLC, a leadership and career coaching business. He is a professional certified coach (PCC) through the International Coaching Federation and has a master's degree in human resource development from Xavier University. He has been working in the field of human resource development for over a decade in both the private and public sectors, with specialties in leadership development, interpersonal skills development, coaching, mentoring, and team building.