

SOCIALLY JUST LEADERSHIP

April 15, 2016 | 11:30 AM – 1 PM | KU West Ballroom

Audience: All Staff

University of Dayton's division of student development offers professional development programs that enhance knowledge, skills and expertise. It is ideal to offer this session across the division, as leadership development is a part of our collective work, no matter the position held. The topic is: "Socially Just Leadership." This is a conversation - no prepared presentation.

COMPETENCIES DEVELOPED

- University of Dayton: People/Interpersonal (Intentionally builds leadership capacity as central to our values), Strategic/Results (Demonstrates continuity between actions and the Catholic and Marianist mission of the University)
- NASPA/ACPA: Ethical Professional Practice, Leadership
- Marianist Administration: Managing People

REGISTRATION

Register online at the Student Development staff page on OrgSync.com.

COREY SEEMILLER, PH.D.

Dr. Corey Seemiller received her Bachelor's degree in Communication from Arizona State University, Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Northern Arizona University, and Ph.D. in Higher Education from the University of Arizona. She has worked as a leadership educator in higher education, K-12, non-profits, military, and in the community for more than 20 years. Prior to her role as Assistant Professor in Organizational Leadership at Wright State University, Dr. Seemiller served as the Director of Leadership, Learning, and Assessment at OrgSync, Inc., a campus management technology platform for more than 450 colleges internationally.