Callouts:

- Should students' posts be reviewed before they are posted in the forum? If so, select 'Yes.'
- If locked students can read existing posts but not add anything new.
- Should Isidore assume a student has read every message in a thread when they open the top post? If so, select 'Yes'.
- What permission level should each type of site user get?
- When a user type is selected the permission level they are assigned is shown
