

Isidore Tip – How do I tell students we’re using Isidore?

Description: How do I tell my students that we’re using Isidore for our class site? Is there any standard text I can add to my syllabus? The most effective way to let your students know that you’ll be using Isidore to support your site is through your syllabus.

Feel free to copy and paste the text below into your course syllabus and edit it as you see fit. The text below represents a ‘boilerplate’ approach that should work for most classes.
